State Leaders Split, But Back GOP Platform

Nixon Bids Party To Push Campaign 'As Never Before'

By CHAPIN A. DAY

CHICAGO— California's delegates to the Republican National Convention endorsed by a split vote the party's proposed platform this morning after a sharp battle over the wording of the civil rights plan.

The action came after Vice President Richard M. Nixon and his wife, Pat, appeared at a breakfast caucus of the group. Nixon, who called his visit "coming home again," declared in a short speech that the party has a platform "big enough for the majority of the people in the county to stand on."

ADOPTION TONIGHT

He pointed out that this platform and the Republican program is "not designed for government enterprise, but for private enterprise."

Nixon urged a campaign "such as has never been seen before" Associated Press reported.

Reviewing platform differences Nixon said some party members "say we should do nothing in the field of education, health, and welfare."

"I think," he said, "we have to recognize social and economic problems where local government can't do the job. We have a platform in the great American tradition."

The platform will be adopted in convention session.

NO FLOOR FIGHT

(Prospects for any floor battle on the 10,000-word platform document faded as most Republican chiefs indicated they would accept the compromise on the racial equality issue, Associated Press reported.

(Both New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Nixon were described as satisfied with the platform as it now stands.)

The California delegation staged a preliminary battle over endorsement of the "sit-in" demonstrations in the South. In dispute was the section of the plank which reaffirms the "constitutional right to peaceable assembly to protest discrimination in private business establishments."

DAY FOR BIG LAUGH—Vice President Richard M. Nixon and New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller were in jovial moods today after Rockefeller had taken himself out of the presidential nomination ring. (AP Wirephoto)

Support Pledged By Rocky

CHICAGO (AP)—In relaxed mood, the Republicans whirled through a round of social activities and sightseeing today preliminary to their convention's big moment tonight — the nomination of Richard M. Nixon for president.

Tensions and quarrels over the platform had faded. The mood was: Close ranks and wham the Democrats.

GREAT HARMONY

Nixon and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, who once looked as prospective antagonists at this convention, breakfasted together in great harmony.

Accompanied by Mrs. Nixon, the vice president went over to Rockefeller's hotel for breakfast with the governor and the new York delegation.

Rockefeller met him at the curb and they all but embraced, looking like a couple of old college buddies.

Nixon called New York the key state in what he said was going to be a very close election contest.

'GOING TO WIN'

Rockefeller, his arm around Nixon, declared "he's going to win with New York state in the fall."

In an informal interview, Nixon indicated his vice presidential running mate would not be selected until tomorrow.

But GOP National Chairman Thruston B. Morton in a statement an hour later said the convention "is going to try to nominate the vice presidential candidate as planned, tonight."

"However, if the hour should become late," Morton added, "We will put the nomination of the vice president over until tomorrow.

WANTS TO CONSULT

Nixon's indication of a delay until tomorrow was in a discussion of his plans to consult with party leaders on the question of the No. 2 spot on the ticket.

"I want to have a full discussion of it before we have a final decision," Nixon said.

In response to questions, he said Rockefeller will certainly be one of those consulted. He also mentioned Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona and Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois as among those whose opinions he desires.

RIGHT-WINGER

Goldwater is at the extreme right wing of the GOP. He was critical of last weekend's Nixon-Rockefeller statement of principles, calling it a surrender by Nixon. He also didn't like some aspects of the platform.

Nixon's mention of the Arizona senator as one of those to be consulted about the vice presidential nominee tended to emphasize the ranks-closing phase into which Nixon, in firm control of the convention, has now carried it. The name still getting most attention in speculation as to the No. 2 spot on the ticket was that of U. N. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge.

Also figuring in it were Sen. Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky, Rep. Walter Judd of Minnesota and Secretary of the Interior Fred Seaton.

Kent Selected To Head State Kennedy Drive

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The job of getting California's 32 electoral votes into the Democratic column this November will be in charge of Roger Kent of Kent Woodlands, longtime party leader and probably its next state chairman.

Kent was named to head Sen. John F. Kennedy's California campaign at a two-hour conference in Gov. Edmund G. Brown's office yesterday, attended by Ted Kennedy, 28, thec andidate's youngest brother, and half a dozen top California Democrats.

HONORARY CHAIRMAN

Brown was named honorary chairman. Kent, now party vice chairman for Northern California, is expected to be named state chairman at the party's convention here this weekend.

Young Kennedy, in charge of his brother's campaign in the western states, including Hawaii and Alaska, called California "a vital testing ground." His headquarters will be in San Francisco and Los Angeles.

BIG DRIVE

He said he plans to start with a "vigorous registration drive" in this state where Democrats outnumber Republicans' 3-2, following up the Sept. 15 registration deadline with several other activities, including a campaign tour by Adlai Stevenson.

Ted said he expects the former Democratic nominee to campaign throughout the West, and said Stevenson will meet with Sen. Kennedy in Hyannis Port, Mass., Friday to discuss his role.

20-Cent Cut Seen In Basic Tax Rate

Marin County's basic tax rate, which was estimated to be $2.37 under the preliminary budget, can be reduced by 20 cents or more, the county auditor and county administrator disclosed today.

Such a reduction would mean a tax rate drop of at least five cents below last year's rate of $2.23. The final decision on the tax rate will be up to the county board of supervisors, who will hold a public conference on the budget tonight.

County Auditor Leon A. deLisle, who has been working out an "austerity" budget with the county administrator, revealed that the reduction is possible because of two big factors: A rise in total assessed valuation brought about by Assessor Bert W. Broemmel's reappraisal program, and reduction in expenses by various departments, through the austerity program.

Asst. Administrator Alan Bruce said another factor—the year-end carryover balance of a quarter million dollars more than expected—also helps in making the tax rate reduction possible.

Auditor deLisle said he and the administrator worked out a new system of gauging budget needs on the basis of past experience (actual costs incurred by each department over the past three years) instead of on the requests made by each department.

"In many cases, we found that departmental requests were not founded on good arithmetic," said deLisle. Through the use of IBM computers, a system has been worked out to estimate more precisely what each department needs, the auditor said.

"I feel that the tax rate can be cut at least five cents below last year's rate ($2.23)," the auditor declared.

"I feel the supervisors can give taxpayers credit for the increase in assessed valuation."

As an example of how departmental requests can be cut, deLisle said that the request for general relief welfare fund was $185,000 for the coming year. deLisle said the economic conditions today are comparable to 1957-58, when only $134,000 was spent for general relief grants. Therefore, the $185,000 request can be sliced by about $19,000.

Injuries Fatal To Passenger On Motorcycle

George Arthur Forrest, 54, of Napa, died today in San Rafael General Hospital, second victim of a Novato motorcycle crash last Saturday which claimed the life of his stepson, Donald Lee Redley of Novato.

Forrest, who was a passenger on his stepson's motorcycle when it crashed into a ditch on Hicks Valley Road, had lain on the brink of death since the accident. He died at 4:05 a.m. today.

He was the 15th victim of Marin County traffic accidents this year. Up to this date last year, traffic accidents in the county claimed 13 lives.

Forrest, and his wife, Roberta, were visiting the Redleys at their home at 12 Plaza de Mira, Novato, last weekend.

Forrest, a longtime resident of Napa, had been an employee at the Mare Island Navy Yard in Vallejo since 1924.

He began at the yard as an apprentice machinist and at the time of his death was a supervisory, production and control specialist in the planning and estimate department.

He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Virginia M. Arnold of Berkeley and Mrs. Shirley A. Grove of Sacramento.

Board Approves Oil Exploration

The Marin County Board of Supervisors voted yesterday to enter no objection to underwater exploration off the Marin coast by Shell Oil Co.

The company's application is slated to be acted upon by the state lands commission at 9 a.m. tomorrow at the state capitol, in Sacramento.

The original application was for exploration to be conducted between July 15 and next Jan. 14.

MARIN SCOUTS WIN HONOR AT JAMBOREE

Marin County's Flying Eagle patrol of Jamboree Troop 50 won the national championship in physical fitness competition with 60,000 boys today at the National Boy Scout Jamboree in Colorado Springs, Colo.

Marin Scout Executive Storrs Smith and Scoutmaster Dr. G. William Magladry reported the eight members of the patrol won West Coast honors in the competition two days ago, then came out on top today.

'Clearer' Mass Announced By Pope John

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope John XXIII, in a major liturgical reform for the Roman Catholic Church, today announced that a new code of rules for the Roman Breviary and Mass will become effective Jan. 1.

In a formal document—a "moto proprio" or order by the pope's "own hand"—the head of the Roman Catholic Church said the new rules will be promulgated soon.

He said the new code combines the rules "in a better form, arranged in a clearer" order, and prayers which must be said daily by priests and members of religious orders will be shortened and simplified.

He did not specify what changes will be made.

The 78-year-old pope said a new calendar of the Breviary and Mass also will be issued.

Pope John noted that the rules have undergone constant change through the centuries.

Bogus Check 'Dad' Leaves Tots, Caught

The flight of a man which started in Corte Madera Monday evening, involving several bad checks, three abandoned children, at least two women companions, a suicide note and a stolen tank of gasoline, ended in Truckee near the Nevada border last night.

Boyd Jerold Griffith, also known as Boyd J. Carr, 22, was arrested for reckless driving in Truckee at 7:30 p.m. yesterday by California Highway Patrolmen. The Nevada County Sheriff's Department there said he was being held for investigation in connection with a kidnaping in Reno.

Griffith's spree began at Littleman Market in Corte Madera Monday about 6:15 p.m. when his wife, Sandra Sue Griffith, 21, passed what she later admitted was a worthless check. Less than an hour later the couple was picked up by Mill Valley police as they were driving away from the Purity store there.

When his companion was arrested, Griffith was released by Marin County officials so he might take care of three small

British Cabinet Choice Stirs Row

LONDON (UPI)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan today named the Earl of Home, 57, foreign secretary in a large-scale cabinet shakeup that touched off a furious political storm in Britain.

Home (pronounced Hume), is a shy, retiring Scottish aristocrat who is almost a political unknown. He succeeds Selwyn Lloyd, who had held the job since December, 1955.

Lloyd, 56, was named chancellor of the exchequer in succession to Derick Heathcoat Amory, 61, who is quitting politics.

GEORGE OUT TO PROVE DOLLAR GOES FARTHER

George Washington (reincarnated especially for San Rafael Dollar Days) today set out to duplicate a fabled feat of the father of our country. The Rappahanock River not being handy, George heaved a silver dollar across the San Rafael Canal. The cartwheel sailed safely to the opposite shore—proving, of course, that a buck will go farther during San Rafael Dollar Days, citywide sale on Friday and Saturday. If the dollar in George's hand appears oversize—well, that's natural, too: Dollars will be bigger for Dollar Days—or buy more, anyhow.

BLIZZARD OF CONFETTI—Chicago turned summer into a confetti blizzard as President Eisenhower arrived in the city for the Republican National Convention. Shreds of paper cling like snow to the official car's hood. (AP Wirephoto)

Ike, Mamie Share Acclaim In Chicago

CHICAGO (AP)—In his long career in the Army and as President of the United States Dwight D. Eisenhower has been cheered all over the world. Now he has been acclaimed again in a manner he'll never forget.

Chicago did it when he arrived in town yesterday for the Republican National Convention. A throng of about one million roared an exuberant welcome and showered the President and his wife with confetti, ticker tape and gay balloons.

OBVIOUSLY TOUCHED

Last night the Republican delegates and their guests cut loose at Convention Hall with a thunderous ovation that obviously touched the President and Mrs. Eisenhower deeply.

It was a sentimental journey back to Chicago for the President and his wife. As they stood arm in arm on the platform, smiling and waving, their thoughts inevitably went back to a July day eight years ago when he was nominated for his first term in the White House.

Now he was approaching the end of his second term and the crowd was saying a rousing farewell.

"Thank you, Mamie and Ike," banners everywhere proclaimed. "Well done," others read.

The President delivered a fighting speech, hitting at critics and plugging for election of another Republican president. He was interrupted by applause 78 times.

He had a time of it even getting started. An ovation started the moment he was introduced by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois. The President and the first lady walked arm in arm to the rostrum and the crowd went wild.

PRESIDENT WAVES

The band played — among other numbers, "The Sunshine of Your Smile," an Eisenhower campaign tune of 1952 and 1956 — state banners were waved aloft, and the President waved back in his familiar gesture—arms outstretched high above his head.

Several times Mamie sat down. Several times the President laughingly got the smiling first lady back on her feet to share the tribute.

On his ride into town in an open car during the afternoon, Eisenhower got one of the most enthusiastic welcomes he has ever received.

When the six-mile tour had ended, the President said, "It was one of the finest crowds that I have ever seen."

DEFENDS RECORD

Ike Asserts America Prosperous, Strong

CHICAGO (AP) — President Eisenhower says it is "irrefutable truth" that the nation is enjoying unprecedented prosperity, has the strongest military system in the world and is working ceaselessly for peace.

He gave this assessment of his years of stewardship in the White House to an enthusiastic "Thank You Ike Day" session of the GOP National Convention last night.

Especially in the fields of national defense and economic growth, Eisenhower strongly defended his administration's record. At many points his speech struck at the Democrats, but he could as well have been speaking of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller when he said:

"Just as the Biblical Job had his boils, so we have a cult of professional pessimists who, taking counsel of their fears, continually mouth the allegation that America has become a second-rate military power."

Rockefeller has criticized several phases of administration activity.

Eisenhower, who is nearing 70, received a warm "we like Ike" reception from the GOP delegates, whose party rode to power with him nearly eight years ago after two decades of being on the outside.

The President, as he has before, came up with a dramatic challenge to the dictator in the Kremlin.

Would the Soviet dictator, Eisenhower asked, "agree" to holding of free elections under the sponsorship of the United Nations — to permit people everywhere — in every nation and on every continent, to vote on one single, simple issue?

"That issue is: Do you want to live under a Communist regime or under a free system such as found in the United States?

"Are the Soviets willing to measure their world prestige by the results of such elections?

"The United States would gladly do so."

The President listed a string of achievements on the domestic front, defended the administration's conduct on foreign affairs, and said "there are more Americans today employed, at higher wages and with more take-home pay than ever before in our history."

Speaking of gross national product — the sum of all the goods and services produced in the nation — Eisenhower said "we are fed a great deal of information — and much more of misinformation.

"The interesting fact is that in these past seven and a half years the annual gross national product has increased by one hundred billion dollars—or 25 per cent.

"During the almost eight-year duration of the prior, Democratic administration, the gross national product actually declined in every single peacetime year, save one."

Arkansas Gov. Faubus Wins Unprecedented Fourth Term

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus early today won an overwhelming victory in the Arkansas Democratic primary assuring him an unprecedented fourth term as governor.

With 2,226 of 2,327 precincts reporting, unofficial totals gave Faubus 211,182 votes. His closest opponents were Joe C. Hardin with 56,000 votes and Bruce Bennett with 52,825. H. E. Williams polled 29,218 votes and Hal Millsap Jr. 8,891.

Faubus, whose popularity in defying the federal integration order in 1957 carried him to a third term victory in 1958, combined a carryover from his integration policies with the record of his administration in securing 60 per cent of this year's vote.

Hardin, who finished second, was considered an integration moderate. Bennett was the state's attorney general for two terms and formulated most of the anti-integration legislation passed during Faubus' tenure.

Sen. Kuchel Says Ike Could Be President Again

CHICAGO (UPI)—Sen. Thomas Kuchel (R-Calif.) was thinking what a lot of people were thinking last night when the Chicago amphitheater rocked with cheers for President Eisenhower.

"If the Republicans hadn't changed the constitution with the 22nd amendment, Ike would be unstoppable," Kuchel said.

And indeed it was plain that if President Eisenhower were not prohibited by law the Republicans passed from running for office again, he could have a third term nomination.

"If Eisenhower were running again this year, the Democrats would throw in the sponge," Kuchel said.

The chairman of the California delegation also observed that Eisenhower's assessment of the defense situation "should do a great deal to set to rest the fears caused by comments of irresponsible critics."

Security Council Vetoes Russ Claim Of RB-47 Spying

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Security Council debate on the American RB-47 reconnaissance plane shot down by the Soviets ended last night with a 9-2 council vote rejecting Soviet charges against the United States and a Soviet veto of the U. S. proposal for an international investigation.

The Soviets also vetoed an Italian proposal that the International Red Cross contact the two surviving crewmen of the American plane, who are being held by the Soviets for trial as spies.

SEEN AS VICTORY

Despite the official impasse, U.N. diplomats chalked up the outcome as a defeat for the Soviet Union and a victory for the United States. They pointed out that on all three resolutions the vote was 9-2, with the Soviet Union and Poland opposed by all nine non-Communist members of the council including Ceylon and Tunisia, which usually abstain from voting on cold war disputes.

The vetoes brought the Soviet total to 89 in the council's history.

Chief U. S. delegate Henry Cabot Lodge said the Soviets by blocking an investigation showed "they do not believe their own charge" against the United States. He termed the Italian proposal for the Red Cross to contact the captured fliers a "compassionate resolution."

SPY CLAIM

The Soviets had charged that the RB-47, when shot down by a Soviet jet fighter July 1, was on a spy mission over Soviet territorial waters in the Barents Sea. The Soviet resolution that the council rejected would have condemned the United States for aggressive acts and called on it to cease such activity.

Lodge earlier in the debate said the plane was investigating electromagnetic currents in arctic waters for mapping purposes and that it never came closer than 30 miles to Soviet territory.

In a last- minute counter-attack, the U. S. delegate produced a picture of a Soviet TU-16 jet bomber with electronic reconnaissance equipment under a wing and said such planes had been flying off the Alaskan coast for years. He exhibited a map showing six such flights in 1959 and 1960.

Lodge also charged that the Soviet trawler Vega last April 26 made a vain attempt 105 miles southeast of Cape Cod to pick up a "loaded test vehicle" that the nuclear submarine George Washington had just shot from its Polaris missile ejection system.

Lamperti Tells Qualifications For Bay Post

M. J. Lamperti, chairman of the Marin County Liaison Committee For the Rapid Transit System, made a brief appearance before the Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday afternoon as applicant for the Marin seat on the board of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District.

Lamperti, owner of the North Bay Electric Co. of San Rafael, said he has been in business in Marin County for 35 years and a resident of the county for more than 50 years —during 10 of which he was a commuter to San Francisco.

For the past 30 years he has been active in civic affairs, Lamperti said. He holds a state license in mechanical and electrical engineering.

Chairman Walter R. Castro said the board will decide soon in a regular session its choice to succeed John C. Beckett, who recently resigned on leaving Kent Woodlands. Earlier in the day it had interviewed Thomas A. Rotell of Corte Madera. Five have applied for the job.

Troops Stamp Out Resistance In Rhodesia

BULAWAYO, Southern Rhodesia (UPI)—Armed troops and police swept through Bulawayo's black settlements today arresting scores of looters and stamping out the last resistance of a violent three-day riot.

Mayor Sidney Miller and two officials toured the African settlements which was turned into a shambles when marauding bands of hoodlums rampaged through the district.

The official death toll climbed to nine. At least 60 persons were injured and 320 natives were arrested.

Battlers Against Fires See Hope Of Control

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Firefighters appeared to have the upper hand today in their week-long struggle against a rash of killer fires which have scorched some 600,000 acres and taken 11 lives in the western portions of the United States and Canada.

The latest deaths occurred when the fourth fire-fighting airplane to crash during the current outbreak fell yesterday, killing its two crewmen.

Hundreds of fires still flared, but there were some signs of hope: The giant Wallowa-Whitman fire in Oregon was reported 75 per cent under control, and all but four blazes in Washington had been ringed.

The weather man lent a tentative hand to northwest firefighters with predictions of light showers.

In California, a 2,000-acre forest fire in Stanislaus National Forest may have caused extensive damage to the deer population here, a fish and game official said.

The fire was not yet under control, although officials said they hoped to control it before winds came up later today.

Keeps His Promise

FT. SILLS, Okla. (AP) — Col. Charles P. Brown, commanding officer of the 52nd Artillery Group, told a crew before they fired a Lacrosse missile he would paint the 4 by 8 foot target if they hit it. He painted it —or rather the pieces.

Arraignment Due In Truck Death

San Rafael painting contractor Albert Warren Ellis, 40, will be arraigned in Marin Superior Court Monday on a felony hit-run charge involving the roadside death of a British war bride in Tamalpais Valley last month.

A preliminary hearing was scheduled for yesterday in Marin Municipal Court. However Ellis appeared before Muncipal Judge Harold J. Haley with his attorney, Albert E. Bagshaw, and waived a preliminary hearing. The case therefore goes directly to Marin Superior Court for prosecution. Ellis, who lives at 333 Locust Avenue, is free on $1,575 bail.

Ellis told California Highway Patrolmen and sheriff's deputies that he gave Mrs. Helen Bell, 39, of 307 Tennessee Avenue a ride from the Fireside Bar on the night of June 23. He said she jumped from his pickup truck.

According to investigators, Ellis said he went back to the roadside where Mrs. Bell lay on three different occasions then notified the sheriff by telephone. He gave a fictitious name over the telephone because he feared publicity and embarrassment, he told officers.

The Keokuk Dam, which was built in 1913 on the Mississippi River in Iowa, is 53 feet high.

Reward Offered In Vandal Damage

San Rafael Contractor P. J. Tarrant is offering $100 reward for information leading to the conviction of vandals who have shattered windows in under-construction houses.

Three windows and a truck windshield were peppered by B-B gun pellets along Knocknabout Way in Terra Linda, Tarrant reported to the sheriff's office Monday. He estimated damage at $90.

Tarrant, said the vandalism has increased alarmingly during the past month.

Concert Scheduled

The Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District Non-Marching Band will present an outdoor concert at the Mary E. Silveira School in Marinwood at 4 p.m. Sunday, announced Mrs. Annie M. Reagan, district secretary

KANGAROO GIVES BIRTH DURING SHOPPING SPREE

Deputy Sheriff Lester Isanogle couldn't believe his eyes. Bouncing across the road in front of him was a kangaroo.

After doing a double take, he began to pursue it. Some shoppers and several curiosity seekers joined him.

They cornered the five-foot female kangaroo in a cornfield. During the excitement she had given birth to a joey.

She and her offspring were reported in fair shape, despite the ordeal.

Petaluma Driver Faces Manslaughter Charges

Elmer Joseph Hannan Sr., 55, of Petaluma faces a felony manslaughter charge for the auto accident death of three members of his family when his car struck a power pole north of Novato last May 13.

Hannan, rancher and owner of a riding academy in Petaluma, will be arraigned in Marin Municipal Court Friday afternoon. He is accused of killing three persons, without malice but with gross negligence.

Victims of the collision were his wife, Freda M. Hannan, 53; his sister, Mrs. Genevieve Beffa, 50, and his mother, Rose C. Hannan, 75.

Hannan's car snapped a power pole about a mile north of Novato, blacked out several hundred Marin homes and knocked a radio station off the air.

Sanitary Unit Board Will Set Tax Rate

The Sausalito-Marin City Sanitary District board will hold an adjourned meeting at 8 p.m. Aug. 8 in the city hall to set the final 1960-61 budget.

An election will be held Sept. 13, according to Loren L. Jay, chairman, to fill the upcoming vacancies in board positions held by Carl F. Urbutt and James F. McIndoe. Nominations may be obtained at the office of secretary Edwin S. Long at 201 Caledonia Street.

Col. Switzer Given County Planner Post

Col. John S. Switzer of Portola Avenue, Point Reyes Station, was appointed yesterday by the county board of supervisors to assume the seat hitherto occupied by George Ludy on the Marin County Planning Commission.

The board promptly voted unanimous approval of Supervisor James A. Marshall's nomination of Switzer.

Ludy is a supervisor-elect who has continued to serve on the planning commission for several months after expiration of his appointment. He will take over Marshall's seat on the board of supervisors at the beginning of next year.

Switzer, a retired army officer, has been serving as civil defense coordinator for West Marin, Marshall said. He will have about three years to serve of the present planning commission term.

Switzer, who is 65, retired from the Army in 1951 after nearly 35 years service. He was born on an Army post at Fort Leavenworth, Kan. His father, John S. Switzer Sr., was also an Army careerist who attained the rank of colonel.

Switzer received a bachelor's degree from University of Michigan and did graduate studies in history and journalism at Stanford University. He is a former championship tennis and golf player.

He served in both World War I and II and in the occupation of Japan after the latter war, being military governor of Hokkaido. He has 11 decorations for his military service. He is civil defense director for West Marin and last year was port captain of the Inverness Yacht Club. He and his wife, Edith, have a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Russell Harold, wife of an Air Force officer.

Joseph Fouche, an ex-monk, became Napoleon's minister of police. Napoleon told Fouche: "Tell the newspaper editors that I shall hold them responsible not for criticism, but for their failure to praise."

2 New Mill Valley Lot Sizes Urged

Two new lot sizes — one 15,000 and another 30,000 square feet — were recommended by the Mill Valley Planning Commission to the city council last night.

Present lot sizes in Mill Valley are 6,000, 7,000, 10,000 20,000 and one acre.

The commissioners took action at a public hearing on a proposed amendment to the zoning ordinance. They voted in favor 4-0, with commissioners Robert Graver, Mrs. Ruth Gustafson and Frank W. Lamb absent.

Speaking for the new lot sizes was city councilman Michael Wornum, liaison to the commission, who said the present jump between 10,000 and 20,000 foot lots is too great and the tasks of the council will be easier with additional categories.

Developer Ernest L. Friberg said he favored 15,000-square foot lots where the slope ordinance does not apply.

Manuel Gomez and John A. Estes, both developers, spoke against the proposal. Gomez said he believed a city planner should come up with an overall plan for the undeveloped areas in Mill Valley before any new lot sizes were allowed.

Estes said a subdivider would have a chance to produce a better development if the lots were kept at 10,000 and 20,000 feet and the slope ordinance applied to lots between those sizes.

The commission also:

1. Agreed to recommend to Planner Robert Cornish that he investigate the best way to handle the proposed rezoning of the Enchanted Knolls peninsula point from retail to a more restricted use such as motel and restaurant. The commission also will recommend that Cornish be directed to make suggestions on rezoning of an area of Garden Hills owned by Oliver Sollom of Tiburon. Cornish is to be hired by Mill Valley to Start Aug. 1 in updating the Master Plan.

2. Approved plans for a five-unit apartment project at 96 Miller Avenue by Donald Hoffler.

School Site Plans Pressed

Reed Union School District trustees last night decided to go ahead with plans to acquire seven lots adjacent to the Del Mar Estates school site to meet state land requirements for a seventh and eighth grade school.

The school is to be built for kindergarten through sixth grade, but will be constructed for future conversion to a seventh - eighth grade school.

NEW LAND MOVE

Previously the board had filed a condemnation suit against owners of the additional properties, then dropped the suit. With last night's action, the condemnation proceedings will be reinstituted.

Trustees also decided to study the Belvedere and Tiburon school sites to determine whether they can be expanded by purchase of additional land and construction of additional classrooms.

A special election on Sept. 27 will ask authorization of a bond issue for construction of the Del Mar School.

Trustees gave $200 annual increases to teachers Lola Forsyth, Ruth Wosser and Adele Aulgur. The three are on the portion of the salary schedule that trustees had previously eliminated in a policy decision, and did not receive the $200 annual raises before.

RESIGNATION ACCEPTED

Trustee Ahleen Tresnon's resignation from the board was accepted "with deep regret" and the comment, "you have served longer on the board than anyone."

Trustees accepted teacher resignations from Aloria Bryant, Mrs. Roy Gilkinson and Elizabeth Moore. All taught at Bel Aire School. Employed as teachers at Bel Air were Mrs. Grace Basom, fourth grade; Mrs. Patricia Elliott, third grade, and Elizabeth Barkman, fourth.

Trustees decided to make available to district parents a student insurance policy.

Juvenile Worker Injured In Wreck

Two county cars, one driven by a deputy sheriff and the other by David Fogel, juvenile hall superintendent, were involved in a rear-end collision in San Rafael yesterday.

Deputy Sheriff John J. Harris of 3725 Redwood Highway was entering the highway on Belle Avenue. He told Highway Patrolman James Dukes he stopped when he saw fast traffic in the outside lane of the highway.

Following him was Fogel, driving a county-owned station wagon. His car rammed the rear of the sheriff's vehicle.

Damage to the cars was minor, the highway patrol reported, but Fogel was treated at San Rafael General Hospital for a head bruise. Neither driver was cited.

Development Linked To Parking Lot

Permission to put a parking lot on property next to the Egger and Son Nurseries is all that stands in the way of James E Egger and Herbert H. Shapiro developing their adjoining properties, the Mill Valley Planning Commission was told last night.

John A. Estes, agent for Eggers, said, "if this is not granted, Shapiro cannot add to the Jolly Store at 393 Miller Avenue, the bridge to cross the creek which separates the two properties cannot be built, and Egger cannot put in a shopping center on his property. It takes this whole thing to tango."

Planning commissioners said that to allow parking in the area, which is zoned residential and faces Sycamore Avenue, would be, in effect rezoning. The matter was continued to allow commissioners Ruth Gustafson and Robert Graver, who were absent last night, to participate in the decision.

Estes told commission that that Egger and Shapiro, of entirely different viewpoints, had got together and straightened out the creek so that there has been no flooding for 10 years. Now they proposed a community project to benefit Mill Valley and themselves.

The men have an agreement, Estes said, whereby Shapiro patrons could use parking on Egger's property since there is not adequate space next to the Jolly store. Estes said there would be no access from the parking lot to Sycamore and trees would be planted all around the lot.

Auto Designs To Be Published

Sports car designs and accompanying articles by Col. Ron Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wray Simmons of Woodacre, have been accepted for publications in Automobile Year, issued by Edita S.A. of Lausanne, Switzerland.

Colonel Simmons, a leading designer and illustrator in the sports car field, recently returned from maneuvers in Puerto Rico to Fort Bragg, N.C. where he is stationed with the 218th Military Intelligence Detachment (Airborne)

Disabled Road Workers May Get Training

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday instructed the personnel office to check possibilities of state rehabilitation training for six road department employees who have been classified by the county physician for restricted placement because of physical condition.

"This is a good test," commented Supervisor William D. Fusselman in moving that the men will stay on the count payroll while efforts are made to look after them. After state training they might take other county jobs, it was indicated.

SUBMITS LETTER

Alan Bruce, assistant county administrator, had submitted a letter in which he said that the men have been working in "arduous duty jobs" for which they are no longer fitted. They are Jed Salmina, Richard Velloza, Harry McCullis, Sherman Williams, Manual Gantos and Frank Giubbini.

Bruce said that the department of public works reported there was no possibility of finding suitable new duty within the department. He indicated that disability retirement or Social Security might cover some cases but added:

"There is a possibility that something might be worked out through the State Vocational Rehabilitation Service in training some of the employees for other positions."

HOT-ROD STRIPS

The supervisors also:

1. Received a letter favoring hot-rod drag strips, from the Marin County Labor Council, on the ground that they will "afford safer operation" of dragsters and "take them from the streets."

2. Adopted a resolution allowing amendment of assessments of the Hill Haven road improvement project on Tiburon, due to sale of some property.

3. Approved these appointments: Louise A. Dieckmann as intermediate typist clerk for tax collector-treasurer, at $310; Lee Hooe and Amelia Lewis as deputy clerks of municipal court, rates $295 and $341 respectively; Choi Man Tsue as cook at $341, Wanda Robinson as practical nurse at $255 and Jue S. Wing as re-hire cook at $358, all at county hospital and farm.

4. Promotion of Arnold Katz, group supervisor at Juvenile Hall, to deputy probation officer at $458 per month.

5. Referred to the sheriff a complaint from the Sleepy Hollow Homes Assn. that firearms are disturbing sleep in Sleepy Hollow.

6. Decided to send letters to California congressional representatives supporting H.B. 190, which would allow the federal government to make additional payments to local governments in lieu of taxes and special assessments on certain classes of federally owned real property.

7. Set for hearing at 3 p.m., Aug. 9, an ordinance which would adopt the 1959 National Electrical Code.

8. Approved Standard Oil Co. low bids for motor oils.

9. Received a petition for formation of a Marinero Improvement District on the Tiburon Peninsula, adjoining the Red Hill project, and passed a group of implementing resolutions.

10. Authorized transfer of ownership of a surplus stake and platform truck to the City of Novato from Marin County Civil Defense.

11. Accepted final map of Kent Woodlands Unit No. 14 and approved amendment of Del Mar Estates Unit No. 2.

12. Authorized sale of Larkspur School District Bonds, 1960 Series A and 1956 Series B.

13. Accepted final map of Noren Estates, between Point Reyes Station and Inverness Park near Bear Valley Road, conditional on health department approval of arrangements for water purification.

14. Allowed a year's absence for educational work by Keith Redman of the county probation office, conditional on his waiver of right of immediate reemployment, but on agreement that he would receive priority for next vacancy.

15. Received from Robert B. Hatch, supervisor of advanced planning for the California Division of Beaches and Parks, a letter saying that policies of expanding Mount Tamalpais State Park and Forts Cronkhite and Baker holdings now obligate all existing funds so the county itself should seek to acquire Franks Valley Military Reservation (Muir Beach Overlook) land in West Marin.

Opening Of Terra Linda High Slated Sept. 6

Most of Terra Linda High School will be completed by the opening of classes Sept. 6, architect Carl F. Gromme told the San Rafael Board of Education last night.

The board authorized the contractor, Ray I. Johnson, to finish all the plastering on the lower floor of the academic wing in order to have six classrooms there ready for use.

Johnson had assured Gromme the rooms could be prepared for temporary use, but noted there was some possibility of damage to the fresh plaster if water were spilled on the upper floor. The board decided to assume the risk of any damage.

Gromme reported there was no question that the cafeteria-multipurpose building would be completed for the opening of school. Kitchen equipment is ready for installation, he said.

Completion of the gymnasium building will be a "close squeak," Gromme said, but "it seems quite sure to be usable." Installation of lockers will begin about Aug. 22-24.

The architect said there was no reason why the music building could not be completed. The general shop also should be ready for use as a shop or classroom.

The administration building will be finished too, the contractor has assured Gromme.

Until the academic wing is all ready (completion date is Oct. 18), the school plans to use other completed sections for temporary classrooms.

The board decided to name a group to study problems that arise concerning Terra Linda High and to make decisions committing the board. Members are board chairman C. Paul Bettini, trustee Rex Silvernale, Principal Webster Wilson, Gromme, and administration representative.

Trustees discussed the need for a night watchman at Terra Linda soon, since much school equipment is being placed there. There have been a number of cases of vandalism at the site.

Gromme reported that preliminary plans for the second classroom wing and library at Terra Linda are being studied by administrators.

Principal Wilson gave the board a report on other matters in connection with the Terra Linda opening.

While the school is being operated in temporary rooms, it will not be able to offer an "optimum program," he pointed out.

Terra Linda will have a similar curriculum to San Rafael High, but a few changes are planned, Wilson said. Instead of a course in arithmetic, for example, the school will offer general mathematics, remedial.

Under consideration is a plan to teach some home arts to shop students and some home repairs to home art students.

Wilson said students have been working since January on a student organization. A temporary student council of 12 was elected and has been planning a constitution, orientation program and other matters.

Everyone has agreed that the school should have a closed campus, the principal said. Students would be required to stay on the campus at lunchtime. A half-hour lunch period is planned.

Table Saw Stolen

The theft of a $267 table saw from an under-construction house at Harbor Point was reported yesterday by William H. McDevitt Co. of San Rafael.

VERY HAPPY WOMAN WINS $1,000 PRIZE

Mrs. E. A. Beggs of Novato is $1,000 richer today. She held the ticket with the winning number in Novato merchants' "One Grand Treasure Days" promotion.

"I'm very, very happy," was all she could say today.

Mrs. Beggs will pick up 10 $100 bills from Irving (Chip) Chapman, chairman of the Novato Chamber of Commerce retail merchants committee which sponsored the shopping promotion.

Tickets were given out in Novato stores during the first two weeks in July. Mrs. Beggs said she had 20 tickets from about five different stores.

When no one showed up by last Saturday to claim the first number drawn July 16, Mrs. Beggs' number — the second drawn—became eligible.

Last night the number was printed in a story in the Independent-Journal where Mrs. Beggs' sister, visiting from Berkeley, saw it.

"I was going to throw them away," Mrs. Beggs said.

Woman Injured As Cars Collide

One woman suffered a back injury and another was given a California Highway Patrol citation for right-of-way violation in a two-car collision in Novato yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Winnifred Robins Clark of 190 Pacheco Avenue, Novato, was driving west across Highway 101 at Olive Avenue. Her sedan struck the rear of a southbound car driven by Harold Sullivan Brigman of 55 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael.

Mrs. Margaret Brigman, in the second car, said her back was hurt, but did not go to a hospial. The citation was given to Mrs. Clark.

San Rafael Planners Pass Apartment Zone

Apartment zoning for a 10-acre triangle in East San Rafael won planning commisssion approval last night for the fourth time and now heads for city council again.

Property owners in East San Rafael, who have been trying to change the area from planned commercial and light industrial to multiple residential, sent attorney Samuel W. Gardiner before the planning commission to argue for them.

Gardiner, in turn, introduced former San Rafael City Planner John Blayney, who now works for a planning consultant firm in San Francisco. Blayney said the most desirable use of the land consistent with economic feasibility would be multiple residential. However, he recommended that the density be reduced so that one apartment unit be allowed for each 1,500 square feet of land instead of for 1,000 square feet of land.

After an hour and 15 minutes of discussion, the planners voted 4 to 1 to approve zoning with one unit for each 1,500 square feet.

The area in question is between Canal Street, Bellam Boulevard and Rafael Street.

Commissioner Carl Brown cast a "no" vote. He said he thinks that the 1,500 square feet per unit density is imposing too much restriction. Brown said he prefers trying 1,250 square feet per unit.

In addition to the density restriction, the apartment zoning approved last night would limit lot coverage to 60 per cent of the total land space, including space for offstreet parking.

Two other controversial apartment projects were approved last night in split decisions.

Eugene O'Connor of 43 Marquard Avenue and his neighbor M. F. Schieser won 3-to-2 approval of their request to change their property from single family residential.

Neighbors protested the rezoning on grounds it would congest the narrow streets, cause traffic hazards and open the way for further apartment zoning. For a while, the commission deadlocked 2 and 2, with Nick Dollwet and Carl Brown in favor of rezoning, and Pat Hetherton and Orlando Conti opposed. May Zappetini wanted to abstain from voting. However, to break the deadlock, she voted in favor of apartment zoning.

In a 4-to-1 decision, the planners approved apartment zoning for 15,000 square feet of land, which will be added to two acres of property for a 90-unit apartment off Bayview Street near D Street.

Here again, residents strongly objected to the encroachment of apartments, planned by developer Paul O'Pizzi. Bryan McCarthy, representing the opponents, said the entire block is basically first class residential.

Conti voted against rezoning because he feels the density is too great. Four other commissioners voted in favor of the rezoning, on condition that a 40-by-125 foot buffer zone be maintained.

The planning commission must also give architectural approval to the entire 90 units.

Sergeant Draws Fine For Drunken Driving

James Donald MacKenzie, 32, a sergeant from Travis Air Force Base, drew a $158 fine and lost his driving privilege for 90 days because of his first drunken driving conviction.

He was sentenced yesterday by Judge Harold J. Haley in Marin Municipal Court. MacKenzie was caught last Sunday at the Corte Madera overpass.

SCOREBOARD FOR REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

By clipping this scorecard and keeping it handy you can keep a check on balloting for presidential and vice presidential candidates at the Republican National Convention in Chicago. Balloting for presidential nomination is scheduled tonight, with Vice President Richard M. Nixon considered a shoo-in. A total of 666 delegate votes is needed to nominate.

Rockefeller Claims Platform Victory, Supports Nixon As Own Hopes Fade

CHICAGO (AP) — His own presidential hopes shattered for 1960, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller was lined up today behind Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

But the New York governor claimed a victory in the party platform, which was reshaped to conform in several areas with his views.

The 96-vote New York delegation, at Rockefeller's bidding, adopted unanimously yesterday a resolution endorsing Nixon as the Republican candidate for president.

Rockefeller, who had held himself open for a draft, said in introducing the motion: "It is clear that, insofar as the vast majority of delegates to this convention is concerned, there is only one candidate for the Republican nomination for president of the United States."

The governor said his concession of the top spot to Nixon did not mean he would accept a vice-presidential nomination.

He repeated earlier statements that he would even turn down a personal appeal from President Eisenhower to take second place.

It was obvious as the convention opened Monday there was no significant delegate support for a Rockefeller draft. But the governor continued to hold the delegation uncommitted pending announcement of the party platform.

Last month, Rockefeller contended Nixon had not spoken out clearly on major issues confronting the nation, and should do so before the convention opened.

But he said yesterday that Nixon now is "actively espousing the principles and programs which I view as basic to the future of our nation and to the future of freedom."

The Rockefeller statement proposing the endorsement of Nixon showed no sign of enthusiasm or warmth. It seemed to be keyed chiefly to the premise that Nixon now agreed with Rockefeller on basic issues and therefore was deserving of support.

Rep. Halleck Takes Gavel, Lashes Demos

CHICAGO (AP)—Rep. Charles A. Halleck last night delivered a blasting attack on the Democratic party. Its leaders, he said, are "belittling the progress of a people they seek to lead."

Halleck's hammer blows drew partisan roars from Republican conventioneers packed into the International Amphitheater, waiting to hear President Eisenhower later.

The occasion was Halleck's assumption of the convention's permanent chairmanship.

"There are no crying towels in this Republican convention," the House GOP leader said. "And there are no panic buttons. There will be no wringing of hands—no shameful attempts to downgrade the majesty of America."

Republicans know, Halleck said, that the Russians "are not suddenly 14 feet tall. We do not propose to operate from a posture of fear. We are not going to mistake a big mouth for a big stick."

Halleck took his biggest club to the record of the past Democratic-controlled Congress, in which he seves as a veteran member from Indiana.

WORLUND TESTING

Hub City Man Seeks State GOP Position

I-J Special Report

CHICAGO — The former chairman of the Marin Republican County Central Committee is testing the political climate leading to a state party office.

Elmer S. Worlund of San Anselmo has been using slack times in the Republican National Convention here to test sentiment and line up support for his election to the vice chairmanship of the Republican State Central Committee.

The vice chairmanship is scheduled to go to a Northern Californian at the GOP's state convention in Sacramento Aug. 7. The chairmanship will go to a Southern Californian, probably John Krehbiel of Pasadena, this year's vice chairman.

This year's chairman, George W. Milias of Gilroy, is "definitely not interested" in the vice chairmanship next year.

Worlund said he has been "definitely encouraged" by the reactions of members of the state central commtitee with whom he discussed his candidacy.

But there are others being suggested for the post. Vernon Cristina, outgoing chairman of the Santa Clara Republican County Central Committee, has been suggested.

Robert H. Power of Vacaville has been receiving consideration, but says he isn't interested.

Casper W. Weinberger of Hillsborough, former assemblyman and unsuccessful candidate for attorney general two years ago, also has supporters. Weinberger insists he is not seeking the office, but is "willing to do any job which will help our party."

The vice chairman usually, but not always, becomes state chairman for the two years following his two year term.

Corte Madera Council To Meet

The Corte Madera Town Council will meet for its third session on the tentative 1960-61 budget at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the town hall annex.

Scheduled for analysis tonight are the budgets for park and recreation, flood control, building inspection and street departments.

The original budget figure recommended by Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow was $316,822. In two previous sessions, the figure has been unofficially reduced. Councilmen said they hoped to adopt a tentative figure tonight for submission to the county auditor and tax assessor.

No Meeting

The Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council will not meet tonight nor during August, according to President Peter MacGowan.

Those Odors Evaporate At Shelter Cove

The smells have gone from Main and Second streets, according to William C. Dabner, plant operator of the Sausalito-Marin City Sanitary District.

Dabner reported to the district board Monday night that the lingering odors that appeared from time to time around the pumping station at Shelter Cove have been cleared up with installation of two compressors.

The odors incensed two adjoining neighbors in June; Don Gilmore of Belvedere, a partner in the Portofino Marin Apartments, and Marcia (Sally Stanford) Owen, owner of the Valhalla Inn.

Loren L. Jay, chairman of the district, said today that to assist in getting rid of the odors, a pipe was laid about 300 feet out into the water. The last section is perforated so air can escape and when the air comes out it makes bubbles about two inches high in a circumference of 15 feet.

The board, Jay said, is studying the problem of how to get away from the bubbling aspect, which is something like a low fountain. Jay said the district has received calls asking what the "bubblies" were.

Henry De Gorog, Valhalla manager, said "when people ask us about it, we say 'there's a whale out there' or 'it's only skin divers'."

Tricky Network

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (AP) — In the bloomers of a woman arrested for shoplifting police found $74 worth of phonograph records. They said the bloomers were supported with a tricky network of garters.

Consumer Counsel Rips Variance Request On Packaged Food Weight

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California's consumer counsel says a pound is a pound, and no state regulation should try to make it otherwise.

Not so, say spokesmen for the food industry, who want state rules permitting "reasonable variation" from weights on the labels of food packages, and a uniform inspection system.

An Agriculture Department hearing board took under submission the proposed uniform system of weighing and measuring packaged foods after hearing from both sides yesterday.

The proposal was drafted by industry representatives and county sealers of weights and measures.

Mrs. Helen Nelson of Mill Valley, state consumer counsel, opposing the regulation, said it would simply legalize short-weighting of packaged foods.

Pointing to the 14-page draft of the proposal and a weighty set of amendments, including tolerance tables, she said:

"Those 14 pages of technicalities defy common understanding."

Harry N. Couden, quality control manager for Safeway Stores, said the system was based on a concept of "statistical decision" and that the federal government allows for variations.

William A. Kerlin, who becomes chief of the State Bureau of Weights and Measures next week, said the regulations do not include tolerances.

"They provide a sampling procedure by which the average weight of the lot can be determined from the average of the sample by use of the tables included," he said.

Mrs. Nelson noted that the state's policy for 40 years has been to require that a package labeled "one pound" contain at least that.

Marin Hospital Board Discusses County Pact

Marin General Hospital board members last night discussed temporary procedure for handling certain county welfare cases which have been released from the jurisdiction of San Rafael General Hospital.

The county board of supervisors last week cancelled the county contract with San Rafael General covering obstretical cases, care of infants under six months, and surgical head and chest injuries. San Rafael General Hospital is doing away with its maternity ward.

Administrator S. Ames Pence said it was assumed Marin General would assume the contract. Until the contract is negotiated, the hospital will handle such cases on an interim basis, he told the board.

Also discussed by the board was a report from the personnel committee on the operation of an employee merit rating pay system which was recently approved by the board. Committeeman Charles A. Rowe and Herman Hale reported the system was in operation and working well on a trial basis.

The board approved a contract in the amount of $2,835 with Ghilotti Brothers Paving Co. For seal-coating the hospital's two parking lots.

Also approved was an agreement with landscape architect Lawrence Halprin for landscape designing in connection with the new wing, on a per diem basis.

Parents Favor Uniforms At New School

Girls at the new Terra Linda High School probably will wear a school uniform, if they wish to, Principal Webster D. Wilson told the San Rafael Board of Education last night.

A group of parents interested in the idea took a telephone vote, he said. These were the results: 116 mothers and daughters in favor of uniforms; 43 against; five uncommitted.

Wilson said he was not committed one way or another, but the school would assist any groups bringing forth suggestions.

Legally, the school cannot require uniforms. If it did, it would have to pay for them.

Acting Supt. Raymond Simpson commented that judging from experiences in other areas, there would always be some students who do as they please. Some will wear the uniforms, some will not, he said.

Last fall, girls at Redwood High School became the first attending Marin public schools to wear uniforms.

Two board members commented last night that they favored the idea. A third Willard Vernon, said he didn't think it had a prayer.

2 Rifles Taken From Teen-Agers

Two .22-caliber rifles and an air pistol were confiscated by Fairfax police last night from a car in which four teen-agers were riding.

Officer Norman Christensen stopped the car at Bolinas Road and Cascade Drive, after receiving a call from a Deer Park Meadows resident that he had heard rifle shots.

Tony Almeida, 19, of the Smith Brothers Ranch, the driver; William Hampton Roach Jr., 19, of 727 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, San Anselmo, and two San Anselmo boys aged 16 and 17 were turned over to sheriff's officers for investigation. Fairfax Officer Norman Christensen cited Almeida for driving with an expired operator's license.

Tam Fire Meeting

The Tamalpais Valley fire district board, unable to meet last night because of lack of a quorum, will meet at 8 p.m. today in the Tamalpais Valley firehouse.

STATE GOP

the phrasing was the right of assembly on private property.

Justin Dart, Los Angeles drug executive called the clause a "mealymouth endorsement" of sit-in demonstrations on private property.

Gardiner Johnson, Oakland attorney, declared if the sentence "means what it appears to, it enters a field far beyond the human rights of the Negro."

Henry Salvatori of Los Angeles objected "to diluting civil rights, but I don't want to infringe on other rights either."

John Dinkelspiel, Atherton attorney, called it "too late an hour to upset the compromise and forward moving civil rights plank." He moved that the entire platform be approved by the delegation.

Chairman Sen. Thomas Kuchel then took the floor in an impassioned review of civil rights legislation in Congress, ripping into the Democrats for voting against legislation which would allow federal action in discrimination cases, and then putting a plank in their platform calling for such action.

"I beg and pray," Kuchel declared, "that as the representatives of a party formed 100 years ago to take the shackles off human beings, you support this courageous platform today."

Harold C. Ramser of Los Angeles moved to table the platform approval resolution on the grounds the delegates had not yet had a chance to even see parts of the platform. On a standing vote, he got only 12 votes and the chair ruled he "had quite obviously lost."

Then the motion to approve the platform was passed by an unannounced vote, which was counted unofficially as 31 to 9.

The disagreement was touched off by a report of the members of the platform committee, Rep. Glen Lipscomb of Los Angeles and Mrs. Ruth Watson of Oakland.

Lipscomb called the civil rights platform "middle of the road." He said the New York delegation had asked permission to file a minority report because the plan was too conservative, and the Southern states are to file a minority report because the plan is too liberal.

Marin's two delegates did not take an active part in the debate this morning and their votes were not recorded.

Senator Kuchel did, however, praise Marin Sen. John F. McCarthy and other legislative members of the delegation for "noteworthy public service."

Recordings Played At Trial But Bribe Isn't Mentioned

Two recordings of conversations between a Corte Madera bar owner and San Francisco policemen were played yesterday to a jury hearing the officers' trial on bribery charges, but in neither was a bribe mentioned.

One recording was made by a transmitter strapped to the leg of Edward George Bauman of Corte Madera as he stood outside Jack's Waterfront Hangout on San Francisco's Embarcadero, conversing with Police Sgt. Robert McFarland. The other recorded a conversation inside the bar between Bauman and Patrolman Edward Bigarani.

The transmitter and recording devices were furnished him, said Bauman, by Deputy Police Chief Al Nelder.

McFarland, Bigarani, Sgt. Alfred Cecchi and Patrolman Michael Sugrue are on trial on charges of accepting bribes to protect homosexual hangouts.

Bauman testified he paid $100 to $200 per month for protection of his place.

The jury of eight women and four men listened avidly as the recording were played. But neither tape mentioned a payoff.

At one point in the recording, McFarland said to Bauman: "What have you got to worry about, George? The place is a suspected homosexual hangout. As far as we know, it's just suspected. It's never been proved."

STOCKS TODAY

COMBINED AP and UPI

NEW YORK — The stock market's one-day recovery ran out of gas early today. The list managed to hold a slight upside edge in the initial trading but lost it when profit selling picked up momentum.

Volume for the day was estimated at two and one-half million shares compared with 2,720,000 yesterday.

Gains and losses of fractions to about a point prevailed in the irregular decline.

New Coleman Rooms To Be Ready Soon

Classrooms in the new six-room addition to Coleman School will be ready about Aug. 28, the San Rafael Board of Education learned last night.

The interior plastering is virtually completed, Architect Carl F. Gromme said. The exterior of the building will be almost finished, although there may be some workmen still around when school opens, he said.

The board accepted the $21,802 low bid of Argonaut Constructors of Santa Rosa to build a storm sewer at Coleman.

In other matters, the board:

1. Accepted the $2,185.90 low bid of Underwood Corp. for 36 instructional typewriters.
2. Took under consideration a request from the Junior Museum of Marin for financial assistance.
3. Authorized expenditure of $1,475 to add an additional two inches of rock base to the basketball courts at Terra Linda High.
4. Approved appointment of Ludford W. Elvy Jr. as industrial arts teacher at Santa Venetia junior high school.
5. Agreed to release Mrs. Kathleen Frakes, second grade teacher at Laurel Dell, from her contract because her husband has been transferred to a position in Detroit, Mich.
6. Approved a plan for conversion of two rooms at Davidson School to science rooms.
7. Approved purchase of an incinerator for Terra Linda at a cost of about $3,500, the money to come from undistributed reserves.
8. Adjourned to Aug. 2 when a public hearing on the budget and a general meeting will be held.

children, aged 1, 2 and 3, accompanying the couple.

Less than an hour later, according to the Sonoma County sheriff's department, Griffith checked into a Santa Rosa Motel with another woman. He registered under the name of Boyd J. Carr.

He and the woman drove away within half an hour, the motel owner reported. They left the children at the motel. He also left a suicide note, the sheriff said, saying his body would probably be found floating in the bay and that he wished the children to be sent to their grandmother in Eugene, Ore.

The Sonoma County Welfare Department took the three children into custody.

Griffith, alone but very much alive, was picked up by CHP officers last night just north of Truckee after he drove off without paying for $6.60 worth of gasoline at a service station in Verdi, Nev., just across the state line.

In Marin County Jail, where she was held in lieu of $2,500 bail on a bad check charge, Mrs. Griffith said today the three children are hers by a former marriage.

Sonoma County authorities said they had received a call from a man in Eugene, Ore., who identified himself as the father of the children and said he would come to Santa Rosa and get them.

Mrs. Griffith was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court yesterday. Judge Harold J. Haley assigned the public defender as her legal council. She was to plead to the charge in municipal court this afternoon.

Notary Commissions

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan today announced issuance of notary public commissions to William R. Batey, 509 Fourth Street, San Rafael, and Donald L. Ronsheimer, 546 Pinewood Drive, Marinwood.

Dress Shop Building Plan Wins Approval

A new building for Luana's dress shop, to be located on the former site of Joe's Restaurant at 931 Fourth Street, won the architectural approval of the San Rafael Planning Commission last night.

Joe Costamagna, representing contractor Edward Burgar, presented plans showing the new building, a split-level structure of rust-colored concrete blocks.

Aaron Schwartz, owner of the property, announced construction will be started right away. The new building should be completed in three months, he said. The old building already has been torn down and debris was being cleared away today.

The dress shop will have entrance and display windows on the back of the building, which faces the Third Street parking lot, in addition to the main entrance on Fourth Street.

"We want to keep San Rafael the shopping center for all of Marin County," Schwartz declared.

Requests for this new building and for a 20-unit apartment structure for Custom Builders at Canal Street and Sonoma Street came up before the planning commission late last night. They were not on the agenda. Joan Castrillon, assistant planner, said the matters came up too late to be placed on the agenda.

In other actions last night, the planning commission:

1. Denied apartment zoning for Forrest Clark of 519 Belle Avenue.
2. Granted Herbert Doughan permission to build office and storage building for pool service at 2114 Fourth Street.
3. Granted Eugene Crawford a sign at 15 West End Avenue.
4. Gave Hattie B. Correll of 134-A Clorinda Avenue permission to operate a beauty shop at her home because she is disabled and unable to work outside.
5. Approved a use permit for a 42-unit apartment for Archer and Benioff of Tiburon on the north side of Professional Center Parkway, east of Terra Linda.
6. Approved dedication of a portion of Channing Way, which is an extension of Professional Center Parkway, and a portion of Manuel T. Freitas Parkway in Terra Linda, adjacent to the Catholic Church property.

Vandals Dump Furniture In Club's Pool

Vandals yesterday cleared the Sleepy Hollow Homes Assn. clubhouse of chairs, benches and clothing and dumped them in the club pool.

Sheriff's deputies fished out 37 chairs, two benches, two umbrellas, and numerous towels and bathing suits from the pool at 1317 Butterfield Road.

The rampage was discovered by the association's treasurer Charles Dechent of 1349 Butterfield Road, yesterday morning.

Rummaging through the clubhouse, the vandals had tossed in almost everything that was not bolted down.

Dechent said the pool, which is maintained by the 400-member association, has been troubled with malicious mischief since it opened for the summer two months ago.

Recreation Fund Plea To Be Made

Mariners Cove Property Owners Assn. representatives will appear before the Corte Madera Park and Recreation Commission tonight with a request for approximately $2,000 in playground equipment.

If granted, the equipment would be installed in a recreation area which would be purchased by the homeowners.

Sitting as a commission member for his first time will be John R. Maurer of 36 Estrada Court. Maurer was appointed to the commission by Mayor Edward R. Colthrust to replace Raymond De Young after the latter was elected to the town council in the April election.

FIRE DURING PRISON UNREST

Smoke pours from the shop building at the Tennessee Penitentiary at Nashville, and Warden Lynn Bomar said the blaze was deliberately set by friends of 20 maximum security prisoners who are on a hunger strike against tightened security measures. Three inmates who tried to hamper fighters against the $750,000 blaze were shot in the legs by guards. All 1,800 inmates will be under guard in the prison until the hunger strikes end, the warden said. (AP Wirephoto)

Clubhouse Argument Goes To Novato Council

Opposing factions in the argument over the Novato Community Clubhouse took their battle to the city council last night.

Club President George Wahl asked that the council meet with him to discuss joint city-club use of the clubhouse.

But the council also heard a petition asking that "the City of Novato officially request that the building be deeded to the city." An article in club bylaws which makes it mandatory to turn the clubhouse to the city, on city incorporation, still is in effect, the petition stated.

The petition was signed by 10 persons who said that in 1947 they contribute to pay off a mortgage so the club could take over the building at 906 Machin Avenue. The contributions were made with the understanding the building would go to the city on incorporation, it stated.

With the petition was a copy of a letter from former club member Cy Flugger, which said:

"I cannot understand how this title (to the club house) could be conveyed to anyone of the many groups who participated in its purchase . . without collusion, misrepresentation or outright fraud upon the people of Novato."

Council members agreed to table the petition until what Wahl called "informal talks" could get under way.

"We firmly maintain we (the club) have to maintain that building over there. Otherwise we'll just be scattered groups," Wahl told the council in defending his position. "We'll give you (the city) all the room you want until you can move into your own civic center."

Wahl said the 17 directors of the club were on both sides of the issue. "I'm in the middle, though I do stand for retaining the property rights," he said.

By retaining property rights, the club could be built to a community center "unparalleled in the county," Wahl said. This year's "in the black" financial status could continue to a point where "maybe we could go out and build our own community center," he added hopefully.

Novato Council Changing Law For One-Way Street

Councilmen at the July 12 meeting voted 3-2 to change the street to two-way status over its entire length. But City Atty. Clark M. Palmer advised a city ordinance requires engineering and traffic studies before such a change can be made.

An ordinance amendment introduced last night would make it possible to change traffic patterns after the council had heard a report from the police chief, city administartor and if possible, the director of public works. It would make a vote on one-way, or two-way status or reversing the one-way direction possible wtihout lengthy and possible costly engineering studies.

A section of the road was made one-way for the safety of school children walking along its narrow, deeply ditched sides.

The report on traffic status could be made by the acting police chief and city administrative consultant, city attorney Palmer said, as the city is in the process of hiring permanent men for both jobs.

In other business, the council:

1. Approved introduction of a resolution annexing a parcel of land south of Sutro Avenue and adjacent to Center Road and set for Aug. 30 hearing on annexation of a parcel at the southeast corner of Maybee and Simmons Lanes.
2. Formally assigned the former Monte Maria Community Services District landscaping upkeep contract from the Good Earth Landscaping Co., Mill Valley, to nurseryman Robert Strockbine of Novato. The Mill Valley company had failed to fulfill the contract, the council found.
3. Agreed to continue a hearing on a petition to the council from a planning commission decision turning down construction of an 11-acre Wylie subdivision north of San Jose Creek. Hearing was set for the Aug. 30 meeting.
4. Tabled indefinitely a proposal to join the Assn. of Bay Area Governments, an information, discussion and lobby group. Mayor Wayne Womack voted "no," favoring joining the group.

Horsemen's Group To Hold Contest

Trail test contests will be held by the San Geronimo Valley Horsemen's Assn. for junior and senior members Sunday at 11 a.m. at the club's play field.

Trophies and ribbons will be donated by the Forest Knolls Lodge, said Mrs. Ernest Tanzi, publicity director.

After the events an outdoor potluck dinner will be held for members and their families in the playfield's picnic area.

Mrs. Tanzi announced that the association's next meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. at the Lagunitas School.

She said that members built a barbecue pit, partially completed rest rooms and put up fences at a work day last Sunday.

County Sets Budget Conference Tonight

An initial meeting — carefully termed a "conference" rather than a public hearing— will be held at 8 o'clock tonight by the Marin County Board of Supervisors to give the public a chance to voice its views on the 1960-61 Marin County budget.

"What we'll do from then on depends on how we get along," said Chairman Walter R. Castro yesterday.

Supervisors agree that the preliminary budget, recently compiled by Auditor-Controller Leon A. DeLisle, will be gone over from its beginning right through its 218 pages. Whether this can be done all in one session, it was indicated, depends on the turnout and the interest shown.

Castro and his colleagues agreed that daytime meetings seldom attract more than a handful of the public. The night meeting "conference" was chosen as a method of giving the public a chance to be heard.

At the conclusion of tonight's conference, the board will decide on a basis of progress made whether regular hearings can be started, or further informal conferences held.

Fuzzy Defense Made Of County Contracting

Marin County is no foe of the private road contractor, it was declared in yesterday's meeting of the Marin County Board of Supervisors. But proof was felt to be a little fuzzy.

The issue arose through a letter signed by Hugh Cassidy, secretary-treasurer of the Marin County Labor Council, who in turn passed on the gist of a letter from the Engineering and Grading Contractors' Assn. expressing "reluctance to work in Marin County . . . because the county maintenance department is used in handling construction jobs of more than nominal size."

Cassidy asked what about it.

Assistant County Administrator Alan Bruce and Public Works Director Marvin W. Brigham submitted a statement of contract as against county force road work in three counties with a final note reading: "Alameda County spent 83 per cent more per mile for maintenance than did Marin County; Contra Costa spent 66 per cent."

"These things are a matter of definition of what you call maintenance and construction," said Brigham. "Our system is that any job we can forecast is called maintenance."

The statement comprised first an item on expenditures for "force account construction" as per cent of total road expenditures, with Alameda 10 per cent ,Contra Costa 3 per cent, and Marin 27 per cent.

Next were expenditures listed as "maintenance," showing Alameda 32 per cent, Contra Costa 38 per cent and Marin 30 per cent.

Expenditures for engineering and administration as per cent of total road expenditures were listed as Alameda 13 percent, Contra Costa 20 per cent and Marin 6 per cent.

Supervisor William D. Fusselman complained that the statement didn't establish disproof of the contractors' statement that "we are doing too much work ourselves." But Brigham said the contractors misunderstood the point that "a lot of our construction budget is actually maintenance work."

"I'd like that to be shown," concluded Fusselman.

Corte Madera Sued By Two Osteopaths

Two osteopaths — a husband and wife team—took the Town of Corte Madera to court yesterday in an effort to keep their offices in their home.

Superior Court Judge N. Charles Brusatori ordered the town and its zoning administrator, William G. McBride, to show why they should not allow Dr. Gertrude J. Casey and her husband, Dr. Vernon Casey to have their practice in their house.

The Caseys live at 22 Mohawk Avenue in Madera Gardens.

The town council, acting on an 11-signature neighborhood petition against the home practice, refused on July 18 to allow Dr. Casey to continue using her house as an office.

A hearing will be held on Sept. 6 at 2 p.m. in Superior Court to determine if the city should be restrained from enforcing their decision.

The Caseys contend, in the complaint filed yesterday by attorney Fred Robbins Jr., that they bought the house last June with the understanding that it could be used under a "home occupation" clause in residential zoning.

Panel To Discuss County Purchase Muir Beach Land

Whether Marin County should spend $4,000 to purchase the Muir Beach Overlook a nine-acre property once known as the Frank Valley Military Reservation, and use it for recreational purposes will be debated tomorrow from 9 to 10 a.m. over radio station KTIM.

Panelists on the "Marin Sounding Board," moderated by Kitty Oppenheimer, will include two members of the Muir Woods Park Improvement Assn. which opposes the purchase: Arthur K. Smart and Mildred Corbin. Other panelists will be David Van Pelt, principal planner on the staff of the Marin County Planning Department, Alan Bruce, assistant county administrator, and a fifth panelist not yet announced.

Questions from listeners will be fired at the panelists. Tomorrow's program will be repeated by tape-recording at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

MUNCIE, Ind. (AP) — Ralph Bilbrey, 25, was sentenced to 10 days in jail — for being drunk in jail. Judge Walter Tanner first had allowed Bilbrey to serve a public intoxication term on weekends, but Bilbrey kept showing up at the jail drunk.

Now Is Time To Get Your Polio Protection Shots

The polio season is here in full force. Have you had your polio shots yet?

Most people have, you know.

If you haven't, why not?

Is it because you are waiting for vaccine that can be taken by mouth?

Don't hold your breath, says the National Foundation. Oral vaccine is still in the experimental, development stage. Many unprotected people will be stricken by polio before an oral vaccine is officially declared safe enough for general public use. It may be some time yet.

The only thing you can do to protect yourself and your family now is to take Salk vaccine shots, available at the County Health Department offices in San Rafael.

A full series of four shots will make you 90 per cent proof against polio. One shot helps; two shots are better than one.

The National Foundation is still spending vast amounts on care and treatment of polio victims, along with research on improved vaccine. It is tragic that some of this money goes to care for people who could have been protected against polio if only they had taken the trouble to get their shots.

(And the National Foundation would have just that much more to spend on research of other pressing health problems, mainly birth defects and arthritis.)

If you haven't completed your shots, do so at once.

If you already are protected, urge others to get their shots.

The sooner polio is stamped out, the sooner March of Dimes funds will conquer other "incurable" ailments.

Smoked Chef For Dinner?

The odors of hot iron, burning charcoal and smoking grease waft about upon the Marin breeze as barbecue pits and pans are hard at work cooking meat and smoking chefs these summer evenings.

A suitably encrusted piece of meat smelling like a bonfire and tasting delicious is the goal of all this smoky endeavor. Smoke has a way of following the crowd. No matter where the people gather, that's where the smoke blows. Smoked chef is no rarity when Papa barbecues.

We expect it is Papa's frustrated woodsman instinct that makes him want to burn the burgers in the back yard, but it's a happy occasion for the whole family. Papa usually burns them so they taste good, too.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

BIG LESSON FROM LITTLE BOY

A 10-year-old boy, born without arms and legs, summed up a powerful lesson in a few words when he said: "I know there are some things that I cannot do. But I think of all the things I can do and I don't worry so much about the rest of it."

This bit of wisdom from young John Kemp of Bismarck, N.D., should make every boy and girl pause and reflect. It should help each of them, especially those favored with the normal blessings of body and soul, to overcome the temptations to dodge the many challenges that God sends their way.

Encourage young people to rise above the deadening effects of self interest. Help them to broaden their outlook so that they will seek every opportunity to do good and to help others, rather than concentrate on self.

Remind them of the very sensible advice of Leon Bloy who said: "The worst evil is not committing crimes but in failing to do the good one could do."

"Do not neglect the grace that is in thee." (1 Timothy 4:14)

Thanks to You, O dear God, for countless blessings given me. Be merciful toward those less fortunate.

Know What To Do After Bad Day? Toot The Trombone, That's What

By SID MOODY
(For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP)—You want a hobby uncluttered with people? Want to get away from it all?

Take up the jazz trombone. You'll learn just what true loneliness can be.

Lift the slippery slide from its velveteen case. Tap in the mouthpiece. Purse your lips and watch 'em run—the wife, the kids, and then (ah, treachery) the dog. Vamoosed, all.

Then blow to your heart's content. Until the neighbor calls.

The trombone—once called the sackbut—is an old friend which came long before the wife, kids or dog. They have all since posed the same question put to mountain climbers—why?

Why, indeed. Because after a long, worrisome day there's no greater pinnacle of pleasure than to point the sackbut ceilingward and blast out the soul-clearing notes of the first downhill slide to "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen."

That's how to get even with the world.

My wife, deferring in the first blush of young love, took the trombone as a part — although perhaps not the best —of the complete ME.

Customarily I play solo along with such titans of trombonia as Jack Teagarden and Miff Mole. They're on records. I'm on the coffee table alongside the speaker. Hi was never fi-er.

But misery loves company. So we have a band. "We" are mostly journalists of assorted stripe whose paths have crossed in city rooms hither and yon. We're called, if you haven't heard, the "Fourth Estate Sweet Melodies Jazz Band."

WE PLAY FIVE or six times a year. Never the same place twice. We're no fools. Neither are our hosts.

There's one exception. Every summer we charter a mule drawn barge for an afternoon's cruise up a restored canal near New Hope, Pa.

FRIENDS, music lovers and wives—who don't fit either category for this trip — haul aboard a cargo of beer and pretzels and the mule, his ears twitching in disbelief, starts plodding to "Up a Lazy River."

10 YEARS AGO

A five-day 16-hour-per-day traffic survey of all passenger and commercial vehicles traversing three routes in North Bay counties was planned to test the need for a San Rafael-Richmond bridge.

Assessor George W. Hall steadfastly declined to make public revelation of his assessment formula during a board of supervisors' hearings although offering to tell all in his office.

20 YEARS AGO

A financial statement issued by the chairman of the Golden Gate Bridge District finance committee showed accumulation of a $17,755 surplus during the fical year ending June 30, 1940, as compared with a deficit of $135,002 for the year previous.

In your issue of July 19, Mr. John Ehlen stated: "The nomination of Kennedy proves that it's possible for any American youngster to become President — provided only that he has a multi-millionaire parent who is eager to buy the job for him."

This makes about as much sense as it would to say: "The nomination of Nixon will prove that it's possible for any American youngster to become President — provided only that he has multi-millionaire friends who are eager to buy the job for him."

Do All Phases Of Juvenile Hall Job

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

As a member of the 1959-1960 Grand Jury and a member of its Probation, Jail and Juvenile committee, it is gratifying to read of the activity and interest recently evidenced in behalf of a new Juvenile Hall. This has been amply demonstrated by your fine editorials as well as by the actions of public officials and the public is now well aware of its needs. However, there are certain facts that I believe are being overlooked. Certain of these facts were set forth in an interim report of the Grand Jury which was published in your paper last April 12.

It is my understanding that the construction of a new Juvenile Hall is to be performed in three separate phases, as well as a final phase. Each of the three phases incorporates the construction of 20 sleeping units as well as certain other features. For example, phase one includes eating and classroom facilities, phase two contains a juvenile court, phase three will provide a complete kitchen, and the final phase will include complete laundry facilities. Total completion of the hall, according to present plans, on a staggered or even continuous basis, would probably not be realized until 1966, or even later.

The present situation of housing as many as 47 juveniles in 19 antiquated cell-like cubicles is now familiar to all. The present Juvenile Hall, constructed in 1937, with changes and additions over the years, is not a class I structure, does not meet state specifications for maximum security, nor was it designed for the kind of wear and tear it is receiving.

Even with completion of the first phase, which is now being contracted for, it will still be necessary to continue using the below-standard rooms and they will probably be under constant repair. Continued use of the old facilities, except as necessary on a temporary basis during actual construction of the new facilities, would be unfortunate. A report of projected needs based on population growth made in November, 1957, by architect Rolland Hammond, indicated the need for 60 beds by the time population in Marin County reached 148,000. That figure has just about been reached already and our growth will certainly continue. Overcrowding will therefore remain a problem until all phases are completed. Further, in visiting other Juvenile Halls in surrounding counties, it became apparent that a complete, modern kitchen is considered an absolute necessity; it would therefore appear that such a facility should not be postponed to phase three, but should be constructed now. In addition, any other anticipated future needs must be planned for at this time.

For the above reasons, it would seem advisable that construction of all phases should start together; otherwise, each step will still find us behind actual requirements. Why not do the entire job at the same time instead of having the problem with us for years? Then Marin County can compare favorably with our neighbors who have constructed new facilities at one time over a period of about one year. The situation would then be solved once and for all.

If we construct each phase separately, we will have the recurrent problem of securing funds for each succeeding phase. I believe the original cost of all phases was estimated at approximately $750,000. This figure may have changed since the last estimate, although it is comparable to costs of other Juvenile Halls. If we exclude the anticipated $300,000 to be acquired from the Veterans Memorial Fund, the balance needed to finance the complete structure would amount to around $500,000. Perhaps an entirely separate Juvenile Hall bond issue for this amount would be the answer.

Boyd Likened To Orphan Annie

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

You apologize, in Saturday editorial, for the journalistic profession as a whole for what you brand the "rigged" Bud Boyd newspaper feature. As a member of the profession, I think you are wrong.

The series was clearly a news feature, not a news story.

Is the Independent-Journal to be condemned because it does not, for example, reveal the outcome of a tense situation in the Orphan Annie strip, or Pogo? Your feature editor should receive the answer a week or so in advance of publication.

No one held the Boyd series to be a fast-breaking news story. If you feel you must explain a classic journalistic technique, that's one thing. To apologize for it seems unprofessional.

When Frank Sinatra was appearing at an Atlantic City night club briefly last summer, a horde of teen-age girls congregated each day at the entrance of his Boardwalk hotel, mobbing him for autographs and mementos every time he showed his face. One patently plump girl waved a placard on Monday and Tuesday, proclaiming, "I adore Frank Sinatra," but Frankie Boy paid her no heed whatever.

Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned. The girl's placard on Wednesday read, "You had your chance. I adore Sal Mineo."

Marinite Sounds Call To Arms Against Imposing House Guests

IN LOVELY MARIN County we have a right to expect the highest quality of house guest in keeping with the fine facilities we and M'am Nature offer.

Generally speaking we are not too often disappointed. People who yearn to spend time here are usually discriminating, appreciative, and sober on arrival.

But let's face it: Even the best of house guests can do with a little training. The wise host or hostess grabs early for the whip hand.

We are now at the height of a season when wisdom on this point is in order if not overdue. Already you may have suffered from lack of forethought about (so to speak) the housebreaking of house guests.

It is fatal to fall weakly into the guest's point of view about who is boss, what is fun and a myriad other matters including when if ever a given visit is to end.

It seems impossible to epitomize the proper attitude better than I once did in compiling a framed list of "Lookout Mountain House Rules" compiled when I formerly lived in Colorado. Conspicuous was this line in capital letters:

MANAGEMENT HOPES TO ENJOY YOUR VISIT.

Any other attitude is invitation to disaster, from the viewpoint of Management (meaning of course the host and hostess).

MY OWN Lookout Mountain rules, now in course of revision for Marin County, were actually pretty much of a steal from a small but prickly group of girl friends who used to be known as the Barn Owls because they lived in a barn at a charming and guest-ridden spot called Lost Lake north of metropolitan New York.

These girls worked weekdays for TIME and LIFE. Weekends they applied office efficiency to the care and feeding of guests. Their posted house rules made clear how to behave, or else.

The "or else" involved frequent repetition of a Brewster phone number, by calling which you got a taxi to take you to the train for New York. In other words, take your hostess's orders meekly or get going quick.

Those Owls didn't give a hoot about sensitive feelings of others. You were in their barn at the pleasure of your hostesses, and for their pleasure; if that didn't set well with you just phone BRewster 5734.

MARIN TOO has efficient taxicabs and the first thing a Marin host or hostess should realize is that on Pages 306-8 of the yellow section are listed a fine lot of operators.

Any guests surplus and maybe obnoxious should be promptly advised that the Messrs. Al, Jake Ted and other jolly chaps are at the alert; that Yellow, Checker and Black and White vehicles will whisk them off in a trice or less in case of dissatisfaction.

What should make Management dissatisfied? 'Let's ignore the guest viewpoint.)

A lot depends on how modern your Marin home may be. Many homes lack automatic dishwashing and other modern appliances in which case it ought to be clear that willing guests make light work for Management.

On the other hand there should be only such kitchen help or loitering as the hostess's patience permits, such patience often being in short supply. Guests should be appreciative, uncomplaining, ready at such trivial tasks as lawn mowing, and not unprepared to pick up an occasional dinner check when something different to eat would make Management happier.

No tolerance should be shown for fancy demands of any kinds and your notice should state that drinking guests who ask for "Just anything" will get their tipple from the house "Anything bottle," comprising the heeltaps of all drinks served during the past six months.

The foregoing is incomplete but it should stimulate your imagination along with your sense of self-preservation. Don't be licked. To live peacefully in Marin is worth some struggle.

HATE CAMPAIGN LAUNCHED

Castro's Anti-U.S. Youth Congress Gets Underway

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign Editor

With Soviet Russia, Red China and communist North Korea prominently represented, Fidel Castro returned to the rugged Sierra Maestre this week to host a youth congress commemorating the anniversary of his "July 26" movement.

Not surprisingly, the congress was meeting under the slogan, "For The Liberation Of Latin America" — meaning liberation from Yankee imperialism.

It was a show considerably short of the one million attendance originally advertised, but still an impressive display of the bearded Castro's ability as a crowd pleaser.

THESE WERE THE mountains which Castro used as his base in his revolution against President Fulgencio Batista, and it was from them on July 26, 1953, that he launched a bloody but abortive attack on Batista's Moncada barracks in Santiago.

Now, like the Pied Piper of Hamelin, Castro has piped the way to the mountains for this youth rally which in actuality is a springboard for his communist-supported hate campaign to split all of Latin America away from the United States.

Not all of Latin America reacted as favorably to the rally as Castro wished.

Colombia gave him a flat turn down. But there were official delegations from Mexico and Chile, with others expected, official or unofficial, from such countries as Venezuela, Brazil, Uruguay and Argentina.

AN OFFICIAL GUEST of the government was Jacobo Arbenz who once headed a communist regime in Guatemala until a successful revolution drove him out.

There is no doubt that throughout Latin America there is a reservoir of deep sympathy for Castro.

Legislators in both Mexico and Venezuela have declared they must stand side by side with Castro in his economic war with the United States.

But there also is a growing awareness among Latin American governments of the excesses of the Castro regime and of the dangers along the path down which he is leading Cuba.

ARGENTINA HAS warned him against his plunge into the arms of the communist powers. Peru led the way to take the U.S.-Cuban quarrel before the Organization of American States (OAS) to prevent communist interference in the United Nations.

The violence of Soviet Premier Khrushchev's assertions that Russian rockets would come to the aid of Cuba has increased hemisphere awareness of the danger of communist infiltration.

It led Dr. Jose A. Correa of Ecuador to warn Russia in the United Nations that interference in Latin America by any power, especially a "far distant" one, would earn only "animosity and profound dislike."

Law Collects 13th Win For Pirates

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The stubborn Pittsburgh Pirates aren't going to walk the plank for anybody. At least not as long as Vern Law can beat the St. Louis Cardinals practically blindfolded.

The Cards rocked Law with a pair of two-run homers in the seventh inning last night, but he survived the inning with a 5-4 lead that turned out to be the final score as Pittsburgh stayed a half game ahead of Milwaukee in the National League pennant race.

The victory was Law's 13th, making him the biggest winner in the majors.

It was also his 10th straight over St. Louis which hasn't beaten him since June 24, 1958.

But when the Cards acted up on reliever Fred Green in the eigth, it was up to Face to salt the victory with a double play ball and then a 1-2-3 job in the ninth for his 15th save among the Pirates' 55 triumphs.

Milwaukee, too, had it in bullpen, as Ron Piche saved his seventh for the Braves who beat the Giants 3-1 at San Francisco. Carl Willey (5-4) was the winner on a five-hitter, but Piche had to wipe out the side in the ninth after the Giants rocked Willey with a homer and a single.

Cincinnati's Bob Purkey (10-6) pitched the only complete winning game in the league, a four-hitter that topped the Dodgers 4-1 at Los Angeles. Dick Farrell had to bail out Robin Roberts (7-9) to nail down the Philadelphia Phillies' 4-3, come-from-behind victory at Chicago.

CLINCHING RALLY

The Pirates put over the clinching runs in the top of the seventh when Bill Mazeroski singled and pinch-hitter Bill Virdon hit his sixth homer. Law had a triple, his second of the year, in a three-run Pittsburgh outburst in the fourth against loser Curt Simmons (2-1).

Carl Sawatski and that slugging pinch-hitter, George Crowe, had the Cardinal homers. Crowe extended his all-time pinch-hit homer record to 13.

Rookies Cliff Cook and Gordon Coleman, each playing only his second game for Cincinnati, drove in a run apiece and veteran Frank Robinson hit homer No. 19 for the other two as Cincinnati beat Johnny Podres (8-8). Cook had four singles in four trips.

Purkey, who has now beaten the Dodgers three times this season, gave up Duke Snider's 12th home run.

The Phillies, down 2-1 in the ninth, got a three-run homer from third-string catcher Clay Dalrymple off loser Glen Hobbie (9-13). But then Ron Santo opened the Cub half with a homer. Farrell came on, only to be greeted by a double by Ernie Banks, before getting the final three men. Banks earlier regained a share of the league home run lead when he hit No. 28 to match Hank Aaron of Milwaukee.

PRO FOOTBALL NOTES

Hickey Says Age No Problem For 49ers

With a half dozen players on his San Francisco 49er squad past the 30 mark, Coach Red Hickey makes it clear he doesn't judge a football player by his age.

"I don't worry about age," declares Hickey. "I'm looking at how he performs, how he plays football."

In the past-30 category are quarterback Y. A. Tittle, end Billy Wilson and fullback Joe Perry, all 33, halfback Hugh McElhenny at 31, defensive end Ed Henke at 32 and defensive tackle Leo Nomellini, the old man at 34.

Tittle and Perry have played a dozen years of pro ball each, Nomellini ten, Wilson, nine, McElhenny eight and Henke seven. And you can bet all six will see lots of service this fall.

Last season Nomellini was an all-pro performer and Perry averaged more than four yards a carry. He holds the career rushing record in the National Football League with 7,151 yards in 1,415 carries.

"Are you going to rule out a man like Perry who gained almost five yards a pop last year just because he's past 30?" asked Hickey.

Today the 49er coaching staff started separating the men from the boys in a full-scale scrimmage at the Moraga training camp. Another rehearsal is scheduled for Saturday.

In drills yesterday, Bobby Waters, a rookie quarterback from Presbyterian College, put on a dazzling aerial display as he connected regularly with long and short passes to draw praise from the coaches.

OAKLAND RAIDERS

At Oakland, meanwhile, officials of the Oakland Raiders predicted that 35,000 will attend the team's initial contest against the Dallas Texans at San Francisco's Kezar Stadium Sunday.

Publicist Gene Perry denied reports that the 60,000-seat stadium was sold out for the American Football League exhibition.

The Raiders visited Oakland for the first time yesterday and were honored by a parade. Then they went back to their training headquarters in Santa Cruz for more workouts.

Good news for the coaching staff was the news that Tommy Flores, number one quarterback, would be ready for Sunday's tussle. He pulled a muscle in his knee Monday, but it mended rapidly.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Chisox Keep Lead; Fox, Of All Guys, Hits Homer

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

You can look it up. Nellie Fox homered and Jim Landis drove in four runs.

When the Chicago White Sox get this kind of hitting plus anticipated homers from their off-season power purchases — Gene Freese, Roy Sievers and Minnie Minoso — who's going to beat the defending American League champions?

Not Boston, that's for sure.

The seventh-place Red Sox were the patsies again last night as Chicago slammed all over Fenway Park in a 16-3, 21-hit victory that retained their one-game lead over the New York Yankees. It was Chicago's eighth straight over Boston and 12th victory in 16 games with the Red Sox this season.

The Yanks came alive in their own stadium, stopping Cleveland 6-1 behind winner Art Ditmar (8-7) and reliever Luis Arroyo. Mickey Mantle's 25th homer, a two-run shot in the sixth inning, was the difference as the Yanks won for the fifth time in their last 15.

Third-place Baltimore fell four games behind when ex-Yank Johnny Kucks beat the Orioles for Kansas City 2-1. Detroit moved into a fifth-place tie with Washington by defeating the Senators 5-3.

Fox' homer was his first of the season. The little left-hander, who hits for average but isn't doing it this year (.271) has only 28 homers in 14 years in the majors. Landis' RBI upped his season total to 31. Usually he doesn't quite average one every three games.

Freese added two doubles, and two singles in a 5-for-6 performance, and Sievers went 4-for-5 by adding three singles. Fox and Sherm Lollar each sent home two runs.

That made it easy for Early Wynn to win his sixth in 13 decisions and the White Sox their 22nd in the last 31 games. Jerry Casale (2-9) was a loser for the ninth straight time.

Jimmy Piersall, Cleveland's problem player, scored the Indian run in the second inning. He beat out a bunt for a hit, was sacrificed to second and came home on Johnny Roman's single. After that it was all Yankees.

Mantle socked a 2-0 pitch by losing southpaw Dick Stigman (4-6) into the right field stands with Roger Maris, who had walked, on base.

The Yankee rammed over their other four runs in the seventh against three relievers.

Kucks of the Athletics had not pitched a winning complete game against Baltimore since 1956, his big year when he was 18-9 with the Yanks and picked up a key World Series victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers. Another ex-Yank, Jerry Lumpe, doubled and scored the tying run in the seventh, then beat out an infield topper in the eighth to send across the winning run as the A's singled four straight times with two out to defeat Milt Pappas (8-8).

Detroit's Frank Lary 9-9 won his third straight after giving up the three Senator runs in the first, although Clem Labine came to the rescue with two on and none out in the ninth. Rocky Colavito hit his 21st homer in the fourth to make up two runs. The Tigers clinched it in the sixth when Reno Bertoia errored to let in the tying, unearned run and Chico Fernandez drove across the winner with a sacrifice fly off loser Pedro Ramos (6-11).

Builders Capture Junior League In San Anselmo

Von Rotz Builders won their 11th straight game last night to capture the 1960 San Anselmo Junior League baseball championship with a 7-5 victory over Tool-Teria Rentals.

An unassisted double play by Von Rotz first baseman Charles Wagner made the difference.

The Tool-Teria team had three men on base with only one out in the last of the seventh and final inning. The winning run in the person of Bill Shine was on first. Jim Schneider, who earlier had tripled to drive in a Rental run, lined out to Wagner who caught Shine off first for the third out.

The win gave the Builders a final standing of 11 wins, 4 losses and one tie, second place Tool-Teria 9-6-1, Maggi's Flowers 9-7, Mariani's Cabinets 8-8 and Booth and Little Roofers 2-14.

Dodgers Slate Series With San Diego Padres

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers will meet the San Diego Padres of the Pacific Coast League in the spring exhibition games at San Diego next April 8-9, it was announced yesterday.

Sheehan Juggles Lineup For More Batting Power

Willie K Benched; Alou And Marshall Win Jobs

Willie Kirkland was scheduled to sit this one out this afternoon when the red-hot Milwaukee Braves resumed their series at Candlestick Park with the luke warm San Francisco Giants.

"Kirkland is real bad," Manager Tom Sheehan of the Giants groaned last night following their 3-1 defeat by the Braves. "So I'll put Felipe Alou at his spot in right field tomorrow, return Orlando Cepeda to the lineup in left and keep Jim Marshall at first base."

Marshall, in Sheehan's words, "played like hell" and smashed a home run in the ninth inning that averted a shutout. But Willie Kirkland looked at a called third strike with two aboard in the sixth inning as his batting average continued to whistle out.

Sam Jones pitched one of his finest games of the season in vain. The West Virginian fanned 11 Braves with his fast ball and curve. He didn't give up a hit until the sixth inning. Yet he came out a loser to Carlton Willey, who started to wobble in the ninth and needed a helping hand from Ron Piche.

The Braves, who now have won 11 out of 13 and are dogging the first place Pittsburgh Pirates by a half-game, got the first run of the night in the seventh when Lee Maye cracked Jones' stonewall for a base hit, stole second and tallied on Johnny Logan's hit.

MARSHALL ERRS

Two more Milwaukee runs tallied in the eighth after Ed Mathews had walked and Henry Aaron singled him to third. Joe Adcock laid down a sacrifice bunt to bring in Mathews and Aaron completed the circuit on the same play when Marshall threw the ball to second and it went into left field for an error.

Jim atoned for this mishap with his second homer of the season to lead off the ninth. Then Willey gave the ball to Piche after Alou singled. Piche retired Hobie Landrith on an outfield fly, got pinchhitter Dave Philley to hit into a fielder's choice then had Dale Long, another pinch-swinger, ground out to end the game.

"I had good stuff," Jones said in his philosophical way. "But somebody's gotta lose."

S.R. Softball League Meets Tomorrow Night

Softball managers interested in entering teams in the San Rafael Recreation Department League are invited to attend a meeting tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. at Albert Field. The league is slated to start the week of Aug. 22.

In 1959 the United States imported about $2,000 worth of goods from Nepal, a tiny country on the India-China border. Part of the goods was yak fur, used in Santa Claus beards.

Roadblock Jones Looks Ready To Fill Vacancy On Giants' Roster

HANLEY

A spot is open on the Giant roster so why not fill it by summoning Sherman (Roadblock) Jones from Tacoma before the July 30 deadline. If Tom Sheehan doesn't give Jones a call before Saturday he must wait until after the Pacific Coast League season is completed. That's the major league rule.

Jones is a 6-4, 190-pound right hander whose 10-0 relief record with the little Giants in the PCL speaks for itself. Some say Roadblock and Toothpick Jones are cousins, but neither heretofore heard about the relationship. If they are not related, they nevertheless do have one thing in common—both can fire a baseball.

Roadblock pitched three innings against the Giants during an exhibition game in Tacoma a month ago and struck out five, including Andre Rodgers, Dave Philley, Jim Marshall and Willie McCovey. He blanked the big team for two innings and then three unearned runs were scored on him due to a couple of little Giant errors.

LAST SUNDAY he pitched five scoreless innings in the first game of a Tacoma-Sacramento double header and two more in the second game, picking up both victories. Maybe it is too much to ask of a rookie—to do major relief work after U. S. Army pitching and half a season in AAA ball. Jones was in military service in 1959.

However, who would have believed possible Juan Marichal's jump from Class D ball in 1958 to the majors in 2½ years? Marichal thus far has provided almost unbelievable help to the Giant starting staff with his impressive back-to-back wins over the Phillies and Pirates.

PERHAPS THE National League hitters will catch up with Marichal just as they did this season with Larry Sherry of the Dodgers. But nobody will deny that Sherry and Roger Craig last year gave the Dodgers the necessary lift to win the pennant—and Sherry went on to become the World Series hero. From an obscure pitcher in the Los Angeles farm team at Spokane to the World Series spotlight—all in the space of a few months!

Giant relief pitching certainly could do with some help. Roadblock Jones might be able to provide it in the same manner Marichal gave the starting staff a big lift. The only harm of an SOS to Roadblock would be to Tacoma's chances for a PCL pennant. But isn't the big club's chance at the N. L. flag—remote as it is—worth a gamble?

THE SPOT is open on the roster. No cut would be necessary. When McCovey was sent back to Tacoma the vacancy was created.

Roadblock might not be as poised on the mound as Marichal, but even a rookie should not find it too difficult to match some of the relief efforts turned in recently by Sheehan's bullpen crew.

Ollie Matson Signs

REDLANDS (AP)—The Los Angeles Rams have veteran fullback Ollie Matson in the fold but only on a one-year contract.

The Rams initiated a policy of signing players for two years with the beginning of the rival American Football League. Matson will receive an estimated $25,000. He signed yesterday.

Cal Cyclist Wins Olympics Berth

ISLIP, N. Y. (AP) — Allen Bell of Somerville, N. J., and Dave Sharp of Pacific Palisades, Calif., won places on the U.S. Olympic cycling team last night by finishing 1-2 in the 1000-meter race against time in the final trials.

Cal Denies License For Jordan

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The California Athletic Commission today handed ex-welterweight champion Don Jordan another setback—this time outside the ring—by denying his application for a state boxing license.

Jordan's manager, Kirk Kerkorian, said immediately he would reapply for a license within three months and show Jordan's personal life and career were beyond reproach.

When Jordan appeared before the commission to seek the license, he was questioned extensively about past association with former gambler, Mickey Cohen. Jordan, dethroned at Las Vegas in May by Benny Paret insisted Cohen in no way was connected with his professional career as a boxer, although he was a friend.

The commission cited the following rule in denying the application:

"If in the judgment of the commission the financial responsibility, character and general fitness of an applicant are such that the participation of such application will be consistent to the public interest, convenience or necessity, or with the best interest of boxing, the commission may grant a license." The commission did not comment on application of the provision to Jordan in reaching its decision.

Ex-PCC Colleges Seek Entry In Skyline League

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—The Skyline Conference was in bits and pieces today but some new formations were on the horizon.

Realignment, it's called.

Some old Pacific Coast Conference teams figure in the new formations. So do Arizona State University of the Border Conference.

For months these schools have been talking about setting up a new conference.

Last night the presidents of the eight Skyline Conference schools issued a joint statement after an all-day meeting, to wit:

"Some realignment of the conference is indicated within a relatively short time. . . . Indeed, several of the schools reported today they are considering the possibility of other affiliations. . . ."

Those schools considering "other affiliations" were not specified, but they are Utah, Brigham Young and New Mexico, judging by all the unofficial meetings going on.

The old PCC schools which have met with Utah, BYU and New Mexico about a realignment are Washington State, Oregon and Oregon State. Arizona and Arizona State University sat in on those talks, too.

Frick Keeps An Eye On Jim Piersall

NEW YORK (AP)—The next time Jimmy Piersall gets into trouble, he may have to answer to Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick.

Frick, the Associated Press learned today, met yesterday with Harvey Kuenn and discussed the Piersall situation with the Cleveland Indian player representative. Kuenn brought the commissioner up to date on the Piersall matter and the commissioner told him he would keep close tabs on Piersall's actions the rest of the season.

The Piersall matter came up when Kuenn visited the commissioner's office to discuss plans for next year's All-Star game.

Frick earlier had talked by telephone to American League President Joe Cronin, who had given Piersall a fatherly talk Monday after slapping him with a $100 fine for being ejected, for the sixth time this season, in a game in Boston last Saturday. The commissioner had refrained from becoming involved as he felt Piersall's difficulties with umpires was strictly an American League matter.

INDIANS NERVOUS

The Cleveland players, claiming Piersall's antics were making them nervous, were to have held a closed-door meeting with Manager Joe Gordon before last night's game with the New York Yankees. It was cancelled when Piersall promised Kuenn that he would stay out of rhubarbs and adhere strictly to baseball.

Kuenn, sympathetic to Piersall, told Frick he believed the troubled star, who is enjoying one of his best seasons, is earnest about mending his ways and should be given a chance to prove it.

Piersall was on his best behavior last night as the Indians were beaten 6-1 by the Yankees. He scored the Indians' only run following his second inning bunt single, and was cheered by a crowd of 37,632 each time he came to bat. He got one hit in four times at bat and is batting .295. He is tied for club lead with 50 runs batted in and is second in home runs with 13.

Softball Tournament Opens In S.A. Tonight

Hamilton Air Force Base and Presidio Army Base tangle at 6:30 tonight at Memorial Park in the first game of the San Anselmo Recreation Department's First Softball Tournament.

Sohner Tree Service, McPhail's, and Jameson Trucking of Petaluma are also entered in the round-robin tournament.

Evening games beginning at 6:30 o'clock are scheduled for today, Thursday, and Friday. Four contests on Saturday (11:45 a.m.) and three Sunday (1 p.m.) conclude the tournament.

Sohner Tree Service meets Hamilton tomorrow and McPhail's and Sohner's battle Friday night.

Presidio has been established as the pre-tournament favorite. The Soldiers have virtually the same team that won the San Rafael Men's Softball League with a 7-1 record last year. Pitcher Ed Johnson and catcher Fred Viviani form what is possibly the best battery in the Bay Area and one of the best in northern California. Johnson and outfielder Dale Willingham are the top hitters for the Presidio.

The Hamilton Defenders will again be lead by shortstop and team captain Art Marthallar. The Defenders beat McPhaill's, 6-3, in a practice game last week.

TOP PLAYERS

Manager Joe Gereghty of McPhail's has lined up some top local talent which includes catcher Nolan Wilson, shortstop Jim Barbeau and third-sacker John Brookman. Geregthy will pitch eitther Bob Eggleton or Sid Walker against Sohner's Friday.

Sohner Tree Service, winner of four straight practice tilts, is led by the hitting of Bob Alvarado, Earl Beyer, Ron Jerome, Jack Phillips and Sam Rampone and the defensive work of Art Donati and Ken Cuneo. The San Anselmo nine has been getting top pitching from Lou Perazzo and Jay Leatherwood.

Jameson Trucking of Petaluma is currently battling for first place in the "Class A" Petaluma Softball League. Jack Garrison, Joe Volrich and Ralph Giacomini give manager Joe Freitas three top hurlers. Jameson boasts a terrific double-play combination in shortstop Tony Conti and second-baseman John Dado.

Admission for all games is free.

Marin Sheriff's Rifle Team Wins Tournament

A five-man team from the Marin County Sheriff's Office won a pistol shooting tournament Saturday in a three-way meet held at the San Rafael range.

The sheriff's team scored 1217 points out of a possible 1250 points, for a 97.2 per cent average. San Rafael police came in second with 1193 points followed by Tracy police with 1190 points.

Leading the sheriff's team were Edward Levine, who fired a perfect 100 per cent, and Sidney Weber, who scored 99.2 per cent. High shooter for the San Rafael team was Wade Powell with 98 per cent.

In the individual shooting match, sheriff's deputies swept the first three places. Sergeant Levine led again with 99.6 per cent, followed closely by Arthur Wiggins and Sergeant Weber.

TOO LONG TRUCK, TOO SHARP CURVE

The temporary Highway 101 turnoff for northbound lanes at Greenbrae proved to be too tight for this long tank truck yesterday. It got stuck in the 15-mile-an-hour curve and blocked the turnoff for about an hour just before noon, reported California Highway Patrol Officer Charles O. Woodworth. A tow truck hauled the tank's rear end back on to the roadway and it finally negotiated the curve. Meanwhile, northbound traffic had to go to San Rafael to make an exit from the highway. INDUSTRIAL PLANS HELP

New Construction In Marin Holds Line For Six Months

Marin's new construction for the first six months of 1960 dropped only one-tenth of 1 per cent below the total for the first six months of 1959, the Marin Industrial Development Foundation reported today.

June construction permits amounting to $5,383,468 brought this year's cumulative total to $30,110,621 compared with $30,498,147 for the first six months of 1959.

So far this year a downtrend in home construction is nearly compensated by an up-turn in commercial and industrial building.

Largest permit issued last month was for a $530,040 McGraw-Hill Book Co. western headquarters in the Fifer Industrial Park, Corte Madera.

Other larger permits were for a $354,165 Marine training center in the new county civic center north of San Rafael and a $299,450 Catholic elementary school in Larkspur.

San Rafael led all areas in the county last month with a total of $1,228,465 in new construction, followed by Novato with $721,680 and Marinwood with $666,800.

Retail Sales During June Set Record–3 Per Cent Over Last Year

National retail sales during June set a new high for that month and brought the first six months of 1960 up to 106.5 billion dollars, a 3-1 per cent jump from figures for the same period last year.

Greatest increases were shown by gasoline service stations, drug and proprietary sales and apparel stores. Furniture and appliances backslid by 1.4 per cent; lumber, building supplies and hardware were almost as bad.

Auto sales, though up 2.4 per cent over June 1959 and numbering 107,600 new American-built cars sold during the first 10 days of July, were comparatitvely unimpressive. Inventories in dealers' showrooms throughout the country still show over a million unsold cars on hand. The figure will probably not lessen appreciably until August when auto production traditionally declines for model changeovers.

THE BEAUTY BUSINESS, however, must be booming — at least in Belvedere. Bill Scott, owner of Scott of Belvedere on the Boardwalk, has just signed with Belvedere Land Co. for 600 additional square feet for a sundeck.

It seems that sunshine is the favored method of hair drying —also Belvedere pretties can have their manicures and pedicures whilst enjoying view of water and mountain, even sketching if the mood strikes them.

Scott took over the beauty parlor two years ago and has added six employees since then. Newest are Mrs. Anika van Abshaven recently from Holland, and Miss Opal Layman who's had her own beauty shop in Kentfield for 10 years.

A RECENT REPORT by the University of Michigan Research Center discloses that more than 14 per cent of American families now own publicly traded common stock. The figure in 1955 was less than 10 per cent, less than 6 per cent in 1952.

Holdings by income groups under $10,000 per year were found to represent more than one third of all common stocks by dollar value.

THE QUESTION of deductible away-from-home living expenses has long been difficult to solve for workers in the construction industry. No hard and fast rule has ever been set by the Internal Revenue Department, nor is there one now, but recently a new statement by the department gives some clarification on the subject.

Key issue is whether the work away from home is temporary or indefinite. One year seems to be fixed as a rough dividing line, though each case will still be determined on its individual merits.

Generally speaking, an employment stay-away from home of anticipated or actual duration of a year or more is viewed as being more than temporary. The new ruling does hold that a man's tax home is where his family resides, rather than where he works. For unmarried men, "home" is defined as where the worker maintains his place of abode and makes his employment contacts.

A PURPORTED SURVEY (and we must admit the official source is unknown) indicates that both men and women have motives for buying which aren't usually included in the salesman's success manual. A woman is said to be influenced because:

1. Her husband says she can't have it.
2. It will make her look thin.
3. It comes from Paris.
4. Her neighbors can't afford it.
5. Nobody has one.
6. Everybody has one.

A man has his own good reasons—just about as logical:

1. He was able to get it wholesale.
2. His secretary thought it would make him look younger.
3. It was made in Germany.
4. It's a more recent model than his neighbor's.
5. It was the last one in stock.
6. His boss wears one just like it.

United States Steel Earnings Fall Off Sharply Over Quarter

NEW YORK (AP) — Earnings of United States Steel Corp. fell sharply in the second quarter this year as compared with record income a year ago, the company reported yesterday.

Net income for the three months ended June 30 totaled $80,893,489, equal to $1.38 a share, compared with a record $148,363,193 or $2.64 a share last year.

Earnings last year were boosted by urgent demand from consumers anxious to build up inventories prior to a steel strike.

Director declared a dividend of 75 cents a common share, payable Sept. 10 to stockholders of record Aug. 5. This is what the company has been paying quarterly.

Net income for the six months ended June 30 totaled $193,472,241, equal to $3.35 a share, compared with a record $254,948,496 or $4.50 a share last year.

The company's income for the first half represented a return of 8.8 per cent on sales of $2,189,948,509. Last year the return was 10.1 per cent on record sales of $2,526,331,380.

Net income for the second quarter represented a return of 8.1 per cent on sales of $1,002,393,894 compared with 10.2 per cent on record sales of $1,448,743,088 in the second quarter last year.

U.S. and foreign taxes on income totaled 72 million dollars for the second quarter and 194 million dollars for the first half. Last year the comparative figures were 164 million and 269 million.

Frozen Peach Is Beautiful In Shortcake

Anytime is peach shortcake time. Peaches are one item which freeze beautifully with regard to both appearance and flavor.

Peaches just beg for cream—thick pour cream, whipped cream or ice cream. And to support this lush combination, how about a rich biscuit shortcake? It can be baked easily in a pie pan and served in warm wedges, topped with the peaches folded into whipped cream.

Grated orange rind, added to the biscuit dough, offers just the right touch.

PEACH ORANGE SHORTCAKE

¾ cup cream or ½ cup milk plus ¼ cup butter, melted grated rind of one orange
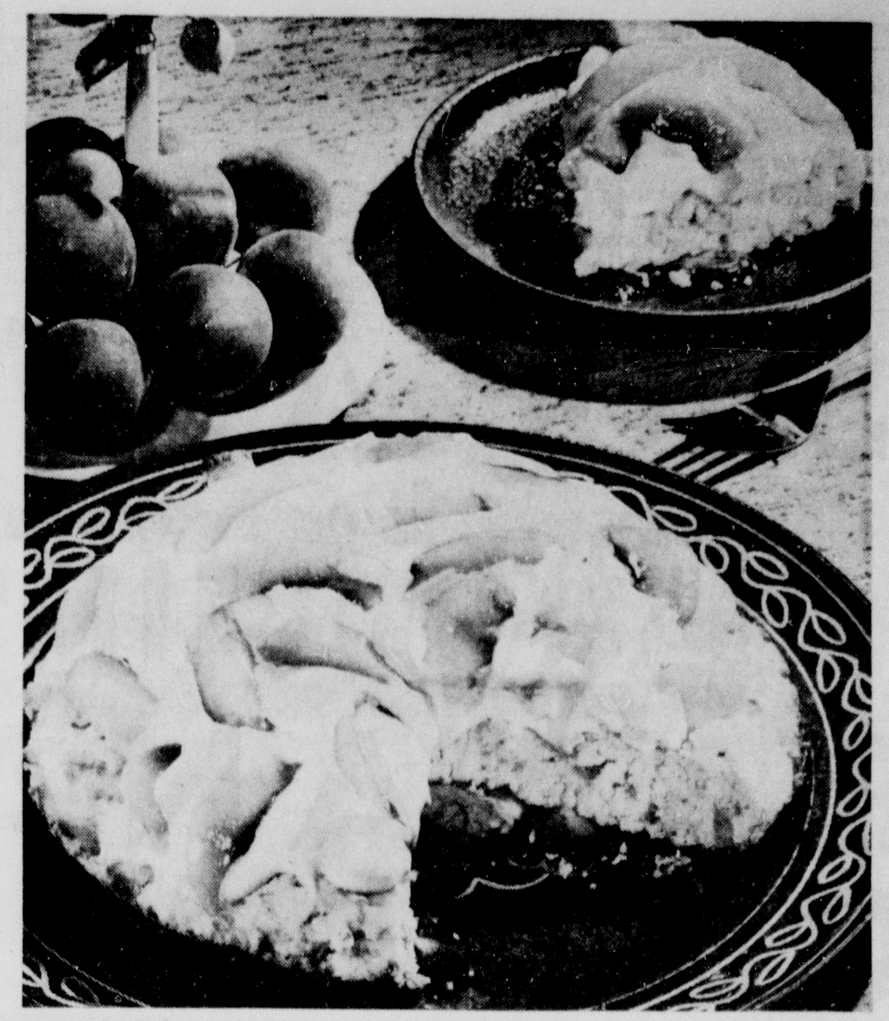
2 cups biscuit mix
2 tsp. sugar, if desired
½ cup whipping cream, whipped

Add cream, orange rind to biscuit mix. Add sugar. Mix thoroughly with fork. Keep dough soft; if too sticky, add more Bisquick. Spread in greased 9 inch pie pan spreading to the edges. Bake about 15 minutes at 450 degrees. Turn out of pan onto serving plate, crusty side up. Top with sliced fresh peaches folded into whipped cream.



PEACH-ORANGE SHORTCAKE is a lush combination for the entire family. Anytime is peach shortcake time because peaches are one food that can freeze beautifully with regard to both appearance and flavor.

Freezers Rate High On List Of Necessities To Modern Living

Probably one of the most frequently asked questions about freezing food is this one —Does the home freezer pay? And like many questions there is no pat answer to give.

The purchase price of the freezer is just one of the costs to be taken into account. Operating costs, and the cost of packaging must also be considered. It is interesting to note that the freezer uses as much electricity in vacant areas as it does on frozen food that could be occupying them. So empty space in a freezer is no economy. Savings in freezing home produced foods, or foods that can be purchased at low cost more than offset the cost of current used for freezing.

A study made by the United States Department of Agriculture has shown that the average family using a 12 cu. ft. freezer, which holds an average of 360 pounds, should plan to turn over the contents of the freezer three times a year if the freezer is to be considered an economy.

However, there are other important advantages in owning a freezer which cannot be stated in such clear cut figures. A freezer can save time and energy when the housewife is rushed such as at holiday times, it saves shopping trips, cuts down on waste and helps the budget by holding leftovers.

Questions and answers on home freezing

1. Question: Can vegetables be frozen without blanching (or scalding as it is sometimes called) if they are only to be in the freezer a few weeks?

Answer: Scientific studies have shown that this is not good practice. Raw vegetables contain enzymes which cause deterioration even at freezer temperatures. Usually, within a week or two, off-flavors are apparent, and later the color and texture become inferior. Blanching is the only way to destroy the enzymes, and directions for blanching and for chilling afterwards should be followed.

2. Question: Should poultry be stuffed before freezing?

Answer: While some commercial packers are able to stuff poultry, under well controlled conditions, so as to prevent spoilage, it is safer for the homemaker ot follow the recommendation that poultry not be stuffed before freezing. The difficulty is that it takes a long time for the interior of the stuffing to become cold, even in the freezer, and meanwhile spoilage microorganisms may thrive in the stuffing, since it is a good medium for their growth.

3. Question: What prepared foods may be frozen ahead?

Answer: Substantial amounts of many kinds of prepared foods may be made ready at one time and frozen; and this is becoming more and more popular since it is a great help in meal management. Also, "left-overs" may be frozen, if they are not allowed to stand long at room temperatures before freezing. In planning for festive occasions, dishes may be frozen ahead so that, when the day comes, the hostess may be relaxed and the party enjoyable for her as well as her guests.

4. Question: What sandwiches can be frozen?

Answer: Fillings made from chicken, egg yolks, beef, salmon, tuna, olives, pickles, cheese and peanut butter hold flavor for months; ham for a shorter time. Omit raw vegetables from filiings. They lose color and crispness. Cooked egg whites get rubbery. Use table fats rather than mayonnaise or salad dressing as spreads. Jellies and jams are likely to soak into breads.

The Home Advisor in the Agricultural Extension Service Office has several bulletins giving information on freezing. Call or write Mrs. Virginia Porter, 738 A Street, San Rafael, for any of these:

Consumption Ice Cream, Frozen Dairy Foods At Highest Level

In 1959, Americans consumed near record amounts of ice cream, frozen desserts and condensed milk—and topped previous highs for cottage cheese and nonfat dry milk, says the National Dairy Council in its 1960 edition of the report, "How Americans Use Their Dairy Foods."

"Consumption of ice cream and other frozen dairy foods was at its highest level in almost a decade and a half, the statistical bulletin comments. Consumption during 1959 rose to 19.7 quarts per person. Ice cream, alone, increased from 15.2 quarts per capita in 1958 to 15.9 last year.

Notable sales increases also were registered for other dairy foods. Per capita consumption of condensed milk was at the highest level in nearly 40 years, and personal use of nonfat dry milk rose to an all time high during 1959. Also, cottage cheese consumption rose again to 5.2 pounds per person during 1959 to match the previous high during 1956 and 1957. More fluid nonfat milk was consumed per person than in any year since World War II.

As for fluid whole milk—the traditional kind which consumers buy in bottles or cartons—the NDC report lists 1959 consumption almost even with 1958. The average American drank 18 quarts of fluid whole milk last year. This was an average 15 quarts more per person than just before World War II Per capita consumption of buttermilk in 1959 remained at the 1958 level—15.9 quarts. Chocolate milk rose from 3.6 quarts in 1958 to 3.9 quarts last year.

Consumption of some dairy foods reflected changes in popular taste. Cheese consumption remained at near record levels, being exceeded only by the 8.1 pounds consumed per person during 1958. Consumers responded to the wider choices available in varieties of cheese and per capita gains were registered throughout almost the entire line.

The post-war trend toward a decrease in use of fluid cream continued in 1959, says the Dairy Council report. But increases were noted for several fluid cream items, such as "half and half" and sour cream. For instance, a study of "half and half" sales in 50 markets revealed a 4 per cent increase in 1959 over 1958. Another study, in 42 markets, showed an average increase of over 20 per cent sales of sour cream during the same period. Among other major dairy food items, butter and evaporated milk showed decreases in per capita consumption..

Product	Per Capita Use 1959	1958
Fluid milk	138 qts.	139 qts.
Fluid cream (milk equiv.)	20.5 qts.	20.9 qts.
Butter	8.0 lbs.	8.4 lbs.
Cheese (not incl. cottage cheese)	8.0 lbs.	8.1 lbs.
Ice cream & other frozen dairy foods	19.7 qts.	18.8 qts.
Ice cream only	15.9 qts.	15.2 qts.
Evaporat. milk	11.8 lbs	12.3 lbs.
Condensed milk	2.6 lbs.	12.3 lbs.
Nonfat dry milk	6.2 lbs.	5.6 lbs.
Cottage cheese	5.2 lbs.	5.1 lbs.
Fluid nonfat milk (skim)	5.7 qts.	5.5 qts.
Buttermilk	15.9 qts.	15.9 qts.

Avocados Form The Basis Of Bettter Dishes In California

By BARBARA HOSMER

Known since gold rush days as the home of fine cooking, the San Francisco area has been fortunate since the turn of the century in having an abundance of the finest fruits and vegetables fresh from nearby orchards. All the California coastal cities have developed a taste for fine foods making use of local produce such as artichokes and avocados which are regarded as delicacies and relative rarities in less fortuante climates of the globe.

Here in California many have only to walk into their yards and pick the rich fruit of the avocado and others can speed to the market and snag some fine specimens from the counter to ripen on the kitchen drainboard.

Cultivated in tropical parts of America since pre-Columbian days, the avocado or "alligator pear" as it is sometimes described, began to whet appetites in the United States about 1900. Grafted varieties were brought to California in 1910 with what has been for us — consumers in the utmost sense of the term — real success. And who can deny that the avocado forms the basis of many better dishes?

As a salad dressing superb on crab and cucumber

AVOCADO DRESSING

⅔ c. mashed avocado
⅓ c. chopped peeled tomato
1 tbsp. minced onion
1 tbsp. cidar vinegar
½ tsp. salt
⅛ tsp. pepper
Dash Tabasco

Mash ingredients together until blended. Makes 1 cup.

GUACAMOLE

3 ripe avocados mashed
1 tbsp. chopped onion
1 tsp. salt
1 medium sized canned hot chile
1 medium tomato, chopped
1 to 2 tbsps. lemon juice
2 or 3 fresh Coriander leaves

Mix all ingredients and serve either as a dip with fritos or as a salad on lettuce leaves. Coriander leaves are a tasty part of Mexican cookery and the cook with a herb garden is a step ahead of her neighbors. Guacamole is good without, though.

AGUACATES RELLENOS DE POLLO

(Avocados filled with chicken salad)

6 avocados
1 cup peas
1 tbsp. vinegar
1 head lettuce
1 cooked breast of chicken
2 tbsp. mayonnaise
Salt
¼ c. grated cheese

Cut chicken into small bits and blend with peas, (cooked), vinegar and salt. Chill avocados peel and cut in halves. Remove seed and fill with chicken mixture. Set on lettuce leaves and top with grated cheese. This should fill the bill for a first course or main lunch dish for six normal eaters.

Here's an interesting way to entertain your friends at a dinner — serve this rich, tasty soup.

AVOCADO SOUP

1 very ripe avocado
3 or 4 c. stock
1 tbsp. whipping cream to each cup
1 tbsp. lemon juice
1 tbsp. sherry to each cup

Press avocado through coarse strainer into the hot stock. Boil, season to your liking and stir in cream and lemon. Last thing add the sherry.

MEXICAN AVOCADO SALAD

3 small avocados, cut in half, pitted
2 medium avocados, mashed
3 fresh tomatoes
2 small onions
1 large clove garlic
½ tsp. salt
2 tbsp. lemon juice
¼ tsp. monosodium glutamate

Peel tomatoes and add to mashed 2 small avocados. Then mince and add onions and other ingredients. Fill centers of the 3 halved avocados Sprinkle with crumbled crisp bacon and paprika. Serve on bed of greens. Enough for 6.

Snacks Find Favor With Nutritionists

"Three meals a day and no eating between meals" was formerly considered the best rule for obtaining a nutritious diet. But there has been a changed attitude in recent years toward those between-meal snacks as food experts have discovered that in many cases they can supply a valuable part of the day's food intake.

Some children do not eat heartily at mealtime, and can use additional nourishment at mid-morning or after school. Teen-agers, boys and girls, require an extra snack for energy and growth.

It may come as a surprise to many to learn that low calorie snacks can be eaten by those on reducing diets. Of course these between meal tidbits must not add to the total daily calorie allowance but should be a part of the daily food intake. Some dieters find that by eating small amounts frequently, dieting can be less irksome. There may be less hunger and less temptation to overeat at meal times.

Meat snacks can be low in calories but high in protein. The meat also includes important B vitamins and iron.

Sliced cold meats are good for snacks, as Reba Staggs, home economist, points out. For instance, slices of cooked ham made into cornucopias filled with cottage cheese are tasty and nutritious. Slices of smoked tongue may be rolled around carrot strips, sliced cooked beef may be spread with horseradish or prepared mustard and made into rolls. Combinations of cooked lean meats and low calorie vegetables are always a good choice.

Save Your Hammer

If your hammer handle is loose, soak the head of the hammer in engine oil for a few hours. The oil swells the wood and doesn't dry out.

Sand For Cedar

Sand the interior of your cedar chest or cedar lined closets lightly if they have lost the cedar aroma.

Barbecue En Brochette

Skewer cooked artichoke hearts, cubes of beef and cherry tomatoes and broil over charcoal for a sensational outdoor dinner. Marinate cubes of sirloin or top round steak in California Burgundy wine, salad oil, dash Worcestershire sauce and a little grated onion for several hours before threading on skewers.

Defrosting Meat

Frozen meat may be defrosted before or during cooking. The method of defrosting does not noticeably affect the flavor, tenderness or juiciness of the meat cuts. All meats, fresh or frozen, should be cooked at low to moderate oven temperatures (300° F. to 350° F.). Defrosted meats are cooked by the same methods as fresh meats.

The calls will begin at 8:30 p.m., with Dave Shepherd at the microphone. Allen Conroy will be emcee and he will present the Cornhuskers' specialty, the White Elephant awards.

The committee is comprised of Thelma and Barney Foster of San Anselmo, Helen and Ed Russell of Greenbrae, June and Bud DeGraf of San Rafael, and Rosemary and Allen Conroy of Greenbrae. Marin Delta Zeta Alumnae Win High Ratings At LA Convention

The Marin County Delta Zeta sorority alumnae chapter received a superior rating in press coverage and its fourth award for alumnae chapter excellence at the sorority's twenty-fifth biennial convention in Los Angeles, it was announced today by chapter president, Mrs. Robert M. Tanem of San Rafael.

The superior rating in publicity for the past two years was awarded to only four alumnae chapters in the United States, following judging at the convention of a committee headed by the National Director of Public Relations. Four years ago, the chapter received an award for placing third in alumnae press relations.

Mrs Mitchell N. Abramson Jr. of Tiburon is the publicity chairman of the alumnae chapter and has served in this position since her term as president of the chapter in 1954. Judging of the press entries were on constructive value, quality of copy, news coverage overall appearance of the press book.

The green leather notebook with a Delta Zeta crest in gold on the cover was awarded the chapter for its continued excellence in community participation, programming, and member interest. At the convention two years ago, the chapter received a gavel for its efforts and preceding that, had received honorable mention for its efforts since its inception in 1951 as an alumnae organization.

Mrs. Guy H. Gale of Sleepy Hollow, national president and current chairman of the national scholarship committee, and Mrs. William L. Blair of Fairfax, director of the five Delta Zeta college chapters in Northern California, accepted the awards for the alumnae chapter.

The Marin chapter prepared the decorations and favors for the convention's traditional Mothers and Daughters breakfast, which was attended by over 100 Delta Zetas, Mrs. Gale reported. A total of 838 Delta Zetas from all over the United States attended the six-day conclave in the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel in Pasadena. Mesdames Gale and Blair represented the Marin alumnae chapter in the special meetings held for all alumnae chapters.

NANCY FREEMAN TO WED IN MILL VALLEY ON AUG. 27

Nancy Freeman has completed plans for her marriage to Antonio Regalado Jr., on Aug. 27 in Mill Valley. Corinne Freeman will be maid of honor for her sister, and other attendants will be Margery Freeman, also a sister of the bride-elect, Anita Doyer, and Mrs. David Freeman, Nancy's sister-in-law.

Mr. Regalado has asked Guillermo del Olmo, his colleague on the faculty of Yale University, to be best man. Among the ushers will be Emmanuel Uren, of San Francisco, and David Freeman, brother of the bride.

A number of members of both families are coming from the East for the wedding, which will be held in the Community Church of Mill Valley at 3 p. m. A reception will be given at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Norman Freeman. Guests will be limited to relatives and close friends of the bride and bridegroom and their families.

The future benedict is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Regalado of Madrid, Spain, and Bridgeport, Conn.

Juicy Steaks

Steaks for broiling should be well marbled with fat. These streaks of fat mingled with the lean give beef a juicy, rich taste.

Palladium Earrings Called A Boon To Tender Ears

Following the dictates of stylists, women are wearing the latest earring designs which, in recent years, have become larger, more elaborate and, consequently, much heavier. Pendant earrings are even longer, while hoops are much bigger.

Many are mounted with diamonds or colored gems for formal wear. Some designers report that women are delighted with the new trend to bigness, but at the same time are nursing earlobes made sensitive from supporting the heavier weight.

A frequent solution of designers is to fashion their larger earrings in the white precious metal palladium. This is done because palladium, newest of the fine jewelry metals, weighs less than either platinum or gold. In addition, designers point out that palladium has a brilliant whiteness and is outstanding in holding gems securely.

Grilled Potatoes

For an outdoor cooking treat, rub a potato with fat and slice in thirds. Put powdered onion soup and butter between the pieces. Reassemble the potato, wrap in foil and grill until done.

Languid Look Endorsed By Balmain

PARIS (UPI)—Pierre Balmain today half-heartedly endorsed the Parisian revival of the 1930 languid look.

Some of the designer's fashions, for evening especially, were a complete throwback, even to the black fox fur cuffs and hemline borders on velvet tube dresses.

Others were strictly up to date, belted at the natural waistline, cut on the straight of the fabric instead of the clinging bias of that other era.

Balmain joined the rest of the Paris couture in showing longer hemlines for daytime—a length comfortably covering the knees.

But evening gowns were shorter, almost all of them ankle length and almost all of them slinky. At this stage of the Paris fall and winter fashion openings, you wonder what ever became of the bouffant-skirted ball gown.

Balmain was in love with capes and tunics for daytime costumes. Collarless, straight coats came with detachable capes. One brocade evening sheath came with a brief removable cape of the same fabric.

Suit jackets were mixed between fingertip length, cut straight, and barely indented at the waist, and flared or straight tunics.

Fur-bordered hems ran through the collection, on both daytime wool dresses and velvet tubes for evening.

Balmain was reluctant to go all out for the 1930's, but other designers were off on a new cycle which meant a lot of return to the old.

So look for skirts one to two inches longer than last year and to the revival of the sleek, straight hairdos, the hair-covering hats and the loosely fitted silhouette of the pre-World War II days when Carole Lombard instead of Brigitte Bardot was setting styles.

Petaluma Dancers To Hold Hoedown

The Ph D's Square Dance Club of Petaluma is having its first party night, Friday, July 29, in the Parish Hall of the Episcopal Church, 5th and C Streets, Petaluma.

It will be a fun level hoedown for newer dancers, also for dancers who have not been active and would like to start again.

Caller will be "Sparky" Sparks, also callers from the floor. Dancing will be from 8:30 to 12 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

Boots, Diamonds Plan Joint Dance

The Buzzin' Boots and the Double Diamonds will hold a joint dance Friday, July 29, at the Star Hall, San Anselmo, to honor the newer members of both clubs.

Bill Owen, Buzzin' Boots caller, will alternate with the Double Diamonds Meryl Basom.

How can a few curls in the crust make BLUE SEAL any better?"

A fair question, lady! It's the curls inside the new Blue Seal Bread that make it better. You see, the TENDR-KURL® method adds an extra step in the kneading process before the loaf goes into the oven. It actually curls the dough, stretches the bread-cells to make the bread more tender. Presses out tiny air bubbles, so the bread stays fresher. It's baked longer, too... and that improves the flavor. Still dubious? Then please try a loaf. You'll know the difference right away

Now it's Tender-Curled

Teenage Fads Snowball In Summer Months

The most conservative girl is likely to fall for a fad come summer. Some fads have enough charm to detract from their silliness, but others are downright ridiculous.

A fashion fad that started in sports cars is now seen at church, en route to work, at the theater, beach and even in restaurants.

It is chiffon or other gauzy square of material worn around the head mummy fashion. And that's the effect most girls achieve when they wear it. The square is put over the head like a babushka, and then wound around the neck with the ends tucked in behind the nape. An oval shaped face can wear this "mummy look" with ease. But a round chubby face or a tiny face cannot.

A fad that takes kudos from the boys this season is the school color braid. Girls who wear pony tails make a band of elasticized ribbons and wear them around the mane.

A fad to keep you on your toes is wearing nail polish of different colors on each toe nail. It doesn't look as bad as it sounds, particularly if the spectrum runs from the pale pink pearl iridescent shade to the dark iridescent hue.

Another playful experiment going the rounds involves putting the boy's initials on the ankle with lipstick, or inscribing the girl's initials on the boy's back.

Another fad has girls paying off their car rides by helping to keep the boys in clean cars. A regular Saturday morning chore for many young girls is cleaning her beau's car.

What To Do If Your Child Should Suffer A Sun Stroke

By DOROTHY V. WHIPPLE, M.D.

During hot weather watch out for dangers that come in the wake of excessive heat. Don't let your children get too much sun.

We human beings have to maintain our inside temperature at just about the same point, regardless of the outside temperature. Our bodies have a wonderful mechanism for doing this, but even good machinery can't be abused too much.

Our bodies make heat. The food we eat burns up in our own little private factories and one of the byproducts is the heat that keeps us warm. The more a person exercises the faster he burns up his fuel but if he is healthy, exercise does not give him a fever; he just loses heat faster to keep pace with the rapid production of heat by the increased amount of activity.

We lose heat in several ways. About 65 per cent of our heat loss is from the surface of the body by conduction to the surrounding air. The rest of the heat loss is by the evaporation of water from the lungs and sweat from the skin. When the outside temperature is above normal body temperature, we cannot cool off by giving up heat to the air. In fact, if the air temperature is 100 or more, we actually warm up from the air instead of cooling down. Under these circumstances we have to rely on evaporation of perspiration to cool us down.

If a person doesn't perspire enough, his body doesn't cool down, his body temperature rises and may go up to 105-106 or even higher. He is flushed, the skin is dry and hot, and he becomes delirious. There may be partial to complete loss of consciousness. This condition is called heat stroke or sun stroke.

Sunburn can prevent adequate sweating; the burned skin does not sweat as does normal skin. Patients with severe eczema do not sweat normally. There are some drugs which slow down or prevent sweating.

There are a few people who seem to have an inherited inability to sweat adequately. There is not much to do for such people except to urge that they do not live in areas where excessive heat is frequent.

Treatment of heat stroke is directed toward getting the patient cool. Wrap him in a wet sheet and blow an electric fan on him, or put him in a bath of cold water.

On The Diagonal

Textile Designer Jack Lenor Larsen broke a 4,000-year-old tradition of right-angle weaving to create the new fabric, which is handwoven of white linen and sand-colored cotton.

Summer Protection

Summer and the traveling habits of America bring many welcome guests into the home. But two frequent arrivals are definitely persona non grata. Their names are sand and water. You can discourage them forever by applying scratch-proof, moisture-proof ceramic tile to their favorite habitats—bathrooms, shower rooms, entryways and hall floors. Real tile's also a colorful material in keeping with summer gaiety, and quite economical too.

SHE SEES THE world in a wonderful whirl of carefree check that also does very nicely in school. This quaint Bavarian inspired ensemble, is a study in two parts that knows its ABC's of easy-care as it takes top honors in machine-washability.

Linda Thomas Weds Larry Curtiss Farr

In a recent 6 o'clock ceremony at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Greenbrae, Linda Jean Thomas of San Rafael became the bride of Larry Curtiss Farr of Salt Lake City.

Bishop Newell Stevenson officiated for the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesly L. Thomas of San Rafael, and Mr. and Mrs. Sherm Farr of Salt Lake City are the bridegroom's parents.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of nylon organza fashioned with scalloped lace neckline. The lace accented the three-quarter sleeves and full skirt. Her fingertip veil fell from a cap of organza and she carried a bouquet of white rosebuds and bouvardia.

Honor attendants were Sharon Thomas of Berkeley, maid of honor; Glorian Soldavini and Barbara Silva of San Rafael. Sharon was gowned in yellow with a yellow veiled circlet. Her bouquet was of yellow carnations. The bridesmaids wore copen blue and pink dresses styled like the maid of honor's. They carried carnations to match their gowns.

Tappy Parnow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parnow of San Rafael, as flower girl, wore a white dress with waist band of yellow, pink and blue and flower headdress.

Ken Soldavini of San Rafael acted as best man. Ushers were Allen Brewster who is stationed at Mount Tamalapis, Steven Farr, the bridegroom's brother of Salt Lake City. A reception for 250 guests followed the ceremony in the recreation hall of the church.

For a wedding trip to Yosemite, the bride wore a mint green frock.

The new Mrs. Farr was graduated from San Rafael High School and is employed at the Baronial Cake Box. Sharon Thomas of Berkeley and Roger Thomas of San Rafael are her sister and brother. Mrs. Jane Thomas of Salmon, Utah, and Mr. and Mrs. William S. Wright of Ogden, Utah, are her grandparents.

The bridegroom was graduated from Granite High School in Salt Lake and is now stationed at Hamilton Air Force Base. Steven and Gordon Farr of Salt Lake are his brothers. He is the grandson of Mrs. Mary R. Farr of Salt Lake.

Teens Today Feel Need To Rebel

By LYDIA BICKFORD

Is today's youth more concerned with a soft job in an air conditioned office—and a bountiful pension plan—than it is in current causes?

Jessica Mitford, perr's daughter and British rebel of the '30s, thinks not. "Today young people feel a similar need to rebel. It may be that they will be Gandhian in belief. But even if they are pacifists, they will be violently so."

Jessica at 18 ran away to the Spanish Civil War, following the pattern of violent opinionism characteristic of her other two sisters.

Her sister Unity became a friend and supporter of Hitler. Sister Diana married the British fascist leader, Sir Oswald Mosley.

While such extremes of political divergence may not be possible today, Jessica feels young people are deeply concerned—and ready to display this concern—over injustices and undemocratic action.

She's found that young people in her present home city of Oakland, Calif., are more constructive in working against school segregation than their parents.

But, she says, there's a difference between her flaming-hot rebellion and the protests of youth today. "Young people work more smoothly when they organize a protest," she says "Youth movements now include all points of view. Minus official—and rigid — leaders, the groups tend to elect a spokesman for a particular cause."

Jessica's own rebellion was highly personal. Attracted by the writings of young Esmond Romilly before she had even met him, she plotted to join him in Spain. They were married there. Romilly survived the Spanish Civil War, but was killed fighting with the British in World War II. She recounts this life in a recently published book, "Daughters and Rebels."

Now married to labor lawyer Robert Truehaft, Jessica has friends in all categories of political belief, but remains intensely liberal.

Her views naturally spill over to her children, Constancia, a junior at Sarah Lawrence College, and 12-year-old Benjamin. Both have joined picket lines, and Constancia has been jailed for non-participation in a civil defense alert.

Sunglasses Essential In Wardrobe

By VIVIAN BROWN

Sunglasses have become an essential part of the summer wardrobe.

Many career girls and vacationers have a wardrobe of sunglasses to match summer clothes. These are not bought in one fell swoop but accumulate from year to year.

One persistent problem is how to tan the face evenly when wearing sunglasses. The telltale white circles and line across the temples can be pretty annoying when we remove our glasses at the end of the day. This is a particular nuisance to models who must look all one hue before the camera. Then, too, they often are posing for ads that will not appear until next fall or winter.

A trick they employ when wearing sunglasses is to rest the eyes at intervals in the sun, removing the glasses during those periods. If the eyes are kept closed for 5 or 10 minutes at the right time in the sun, they will take on a gradual tan around the eye area. After that they often put small cotton pads dipped in ice water or witch hazel over the eye area for a brief period before again donning the sunglasses.

Newer sunglasses include the pince nez style. These petite sunglasses are likely to give eye protection without leaving white marks as they do not have temple pieces.

'Shrew' Held Over Another Weekend

Presentation of Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew" by the Tamalpais Valley Players has been held over for an additional weekend. It will be given Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m. as well as the weekend of Aug. 5 and 6.

During the coming four showings, a collection of natural pebble mosaics by Jack Wilde of San Francisco will be exhibited. The display is being loaned by Nevin Kempthorne, curator of the artist associates gallery in Mill Valley.

Firemen's Ball Slated

The Tiburon Volunteer Firemen's Assn. has selected Oct. 22 as the date for its annual firemen's ball, to be held at the Corinthian Yacht Club in Tiburon, according to associate president Charles W. Pruett.

Quentin Inmate Artists Schedule 'Inside Show'

"The Inside Show," San Quentin Prison's annual inmate art exhibit, will be held Saturday as a preview of a prison arts and craft display open to the public on Aug. 20 and 21.

More than 6,000 outsiders are expected to view the third annual exhibit on the latter two dates.

Most of San Quentin's 4,500 inmates—many with art works on display—are eagerly awaiting their private showing this weekend, according to Associate Warden Dale B. Frady.

A prize-winning figure or painting can mean cash for the inmate artist or scuptor.

Cash awards are low, with the best painting in the show and the most popular each winning $5, a first place $3, and down to $1 for third place. But many of the art works are purchased by visiting viewers. Prices average $5 to $15, but may go as high as $100 or more, Frady said.

Close to $5,000 was spent on arts and crafts purchases during the two-day show last year.

There are 900 entries in the art division this year. Handicraft entries are due by Aug. 5.

Although oil and water-color paintings are the most popular, the inmates also dabble in modern techniques, using casein, tempera and gauche.

Other categories include drawings, pastels, sculpture and architectural design. In the handicraft division there are examples of metal tooling leather, wood and plastic work, weaving and crocheting.

Judging the displays at both the "Inside Show" this weekend and the public showing Aug. 20 anc 21 will be William Morehouse of Mill Valley, Alex Stern of San Mateo, Howard Brodie of Palo Alto, Goeggrey C. Bowman of San Francisco and Paul Forster of the California School of Fine Arts in San Francisco.

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, July 27, the 209th day of the year, with 157 more in 1960.

The moon is approaching its first quarter.

The morning star is Mars.

The evening stars are Saturn and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1789, the department of foreign affairs, forerunner of the Department of State, was established by an act of Congress.

In 1909, Orville Wright set a world record by staying aloft in an airplane over Ft. Myer, Va., for 1 hour, 12 minutes and 40 seconds.

In 1919, 38 persons lost their lives and many were wounded in a race riot in Chicago.

A thought for today: Gen. George Marshall said: "If man does find the solution for World peace it will be the most revolutionary reversal of his record we have ever known."

TIME AND TIDE

The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Future Miss Americas will be on parade at Albert Field in San Rafael on Aug. 5 at the annual Miss Wading Pool contest sponsored by the San Rafael Recreation Department.

Contestants will parade around the wading pool for awards ranging from the "rosiest cheeks" to the "cutest walk." Nine girls will be chosen for individual qualities. The one with the best of all these qualities will receive the Miss Wading Pool banner of 1960.

Those interested may inquire at the recreation office at Albert Field.

County Given Outline On Medical Benefits

A proposal to add either a $5,000 or $10,000 medical benefit plan to the California Physicians' Service group insurance now carried by Marin County employees was outlined yesterday to the county board of supervisors by Joseph H. Sher, manager of the CPS brokerage department in San Francisco.

Supervisor William D. Fusselman moved "that we are interested and we want it indicated to the employees." The other four supervisors voted with him on this.

But Fusselman objected strongly to a second motion by Supervisor Vera L. Schultz that the CPS proposal be submitted to the county auditor, county administrator and county medical director for their review and recommendations.

Fusselman said he objected to the three county officers acting as intermediaries through which the proposal must be cleared, although he did not object to requesting information from them. Mrs. Schultz's motion was passed 4-1 with Fusselman dissenting.

Under either the $5,000 or $10,000 benefit plan, the employee would pay 20 per cent of the medical expenses and CPS would pay 80 per cent. Both have $100 deductible clauses and a $30 a day private room limit.

Under the $5,000 plan an employee would pay $1.48 a month additional, with one dependent he would pay $3.68 and with more dependents he would pay $4.37. Under the $10,000 plan the monthly increments would be $1.62, $3.96 and $4.71.

Although Sher tried to get a commitment from the supervisors that the county would foot the bill for one of the two plans, he succeeded only in getting Fusselman's motion that the supervisors were "interested."

Part of Sher's proposal was that 107 new members be added to the group carrying insurance. He said if the 107 new members are added that employees now disqualified from getting the group insurance would be able to obtain it. Now insured in the CPS group are 455, or approximately 70 per cent of all county employees.

Visitors to Muir Woods National Monument over the weekend totaled 7,878, Supt. Frederick M. Martischang said today, with 3,475 visiting Saturday and 7,878 Sunday.

Harold Morgan Again Heads Demo Committee

Harold Morgan of San Rafael was re-elected to his third term as chairman of the Marin County Democratic Central Committee at an organizational meeting at the county courthouse Monday night.

County Clerk George S. Jones swore in the central committee members elected last month.

Elected to serve as officers with Morgan were Mrs. Nancy Swadesh of Mill Valley, vice president; Mrs. Ellen Straus of Marshall, re-elected secretary, and Bennett Skewes-Cox of Ross, treasurer.

A group of 20 leading Democrats wil meet tomorrow night at Morgan's house, 230 Summit Avenue, San Rafael, to make final committee appointments.

Purpose of Monday night's organizational meeting was to lay the groundwork for the campaign to back up Democratic candidates from the local to the national level.

Members who attended the meeting reported that all central committeemen are in accord with the slate of officers from the Kennedy-Johnson ticket on down.

"We're one big, happy family—not like the Republicans," declared Thomas P. Boyd.

Ends Boot Training

John W. Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Foster of 108 Sycamore Avenue, San Anselmo, has been graduated from Navy recruit training at the Naval Training Center at San Diego.

Babysitter Choice Is Real Concern For Thoughtful Mother And Father

There are babysitters and babysitters. A few are lazy and take money for neglecting our children. A few are lovesick and spend their time talking to, dreaming of or necking with the object of their effection. But most babysitters are conscientious. The average is high, all things considered.

How can you get a good babysitter? Call your high school employment office. List the qualities you want and offer to pay the going wage, or a little more. The people who run school employment offices know that babysitting is responsible work. They try not to send out harum-scarum kids.

Before your sitter comes, ask about her. Your children are more precious to you than life itself. Don't risk their welfare with the wrong person. Find out who has hired her before. Then phone them and ask if she always carries out directions. Ask about her boy friends and other distractions. Check the girl's health, too. You don't want to bring any infections into your home.

When she comes, introduce her to your children. Be sure she likes them and they like her. Give her written instructions. She is not a mind reader. Try not to ask her to do too much. She can't clean house, wash dishes, do the laundry and supervise the children simultaneously.

Tell her when you'll be back. Then make sure you aren't late. One of the chief complaints of babysitters is that people stay out later than they say they will. When you get home, pay her. Don't ask her to wait for her money. Then give her a lift home.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "We've found middle-aged women are better babysitters than teen-age girls. Have other parents found the same thing?"

(A) Yes. In most neighborhoods, however, there aren't enough such folks to go around. And there always are deserving, capable teenagers who are eager to earn money.

She Gets Her Bird

SALIDA, Colo. (AP) — Patrolman Bob Counter found a parakeet perched on a parking meter, took it into a store and had it caged. Later Mrs. Vearl Williams enteredd the store to buy a parakeet to replace the one she had lost.

Inside the cage was Mrs. Williams' parakeet, Budgie. She reported it was the sixth time Budgie had gone a.w.o.l., headed for home with the bird.

Landmark Group Sets Work Picnic

The Belvedere-Tiburon Landmark Society will hold a workday picnic Aug. 6 at Old St. Hilary's Church in Tiburon to replace rotted timbers and the rustic finishing, picnic chairman William H. V. Brooke announced.

Thomas J. Procter is ways and means chairman for the picnic. Mrs. Richard Dakin, assisted by Mrs. Eric Pedley is in charge.

If the church restoration proceeds on schedule, the society will hold a re-dedication ceremony in October on the 72nd anniversary of the original dedication, said Mrs. Robert Bastian, society president.
